181st Annual Convention

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY
RITTENHOUSE SQUARE, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA
MONDAY, MAY 3, 1965, 4:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Eighty-First Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, West Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on May 3, 1965, at 4:00 P.M. (D.S.T.).

The Rt. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania, declared that it was his intention not to reconvene the 180th Convention, directed the secretary to amend the minutes of that convention accordingly and directed the secretary to publish this announcement with, but prior to, the minutes of the 181st Convention. He then declared the 181st Convention to be opened.

The Bishop led the Convention in prayer.

A Quorum being present, the Rev. Canon Alfred Vail was duly elected secretary, and Alfred W. Putnam was appointed assistant secretary of the Convention, which appointment was confirmed by the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, D.D., chairman, presented the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all reports be made by title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

The report of the Committee on Arrangements was presented by title.

The secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay members of the Standing Committee, the officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Episcopal Community Services, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

On May 3, 1965, of the 192 parishes, missions and chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in the Convention, the following have not qualified:

The Diocesan Assessment has not been paid by:

Advent (Polish)	St. Luke, Highland Gardens
Ascension, West Chester	St. Mary of the Annunciation

Certificates of the Lay Deputies have not been received from:

Advent (Polish)	St. Bartholomew's Mission, Philadelphia
All Souls' Mission to the Deaf	St. Luke, Highland Gardens
Ascension, West Chester	St. Luke, Kensington

The Bishop appointed the following committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. John R. Logan, Convener

The Rev. Francis P. Davis — The Rev. A. Edward Chinn

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Milton Benson, Convener

John LeVay — William Talbot

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Purdie, the voting privilege was extended to the Rev. Frederick F. Powers, a full time chaplain of the Episcopal Community Services working in and canonically resident in the diocese but residing in Willingboro, N. J.

The Rev. Canon Vail, chairman of the Committee on Elections, reported that the persons listed below, having received ten or more votes, are placed on the official ballot:

Canon Vail further advised that the Bishop has nominated for the Cathedral Chapter:

The Rev. Canon Alfred Vail — Harry C. Parker
The Very Rev. Albert F. Fischer — Samuel H. Ballam, Jr.

Townsend Munson, Esq., presented the report of the Nominating Committee. Mr. Munson stated that the Nominating Committee had felt it advisable in several instances to nominate more candidates than there were vacancies existing. Mr. Munson noted that the nominees for office who were members of the Nominating Committee had not participated in the discussions involving the offices to which they have been nominated. Mr. Munson announced that the name of the Rev. Harry R. Johnson as a clerical candidate for a term of three years to the Diocesan Council had been withdrawn at the Rev. Mr. Johnson's request because of his election by the Convocation of Chester which had occurred subsequent to the meeting of the Nominating Committee.

The Bishop asked for nominations from the floor and requested that such nominations be in writing. No nominations were made from the floor.

On motion unanimously adopted, the secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot of the Convention for the election of those officers where no more than the requisite number had been nominated, and the secretary thereupon so cast a unanimous Ballot. The chair declared the election of:

John W. Thorn as Assistant Treasurer
The Rev. Dr. Ernest A. Harding as a clerical member of the Standing Committee to the existing vacancy in the term expiring 1968
John B. Hannum, Esq. as Church Advocate
Dr. Henry Wells to the Corporation For Christian Work in Educational Institutions to the existing vacancy in the term expiring 1966

The chair also declared that the Convention had nominated as directors of the Church Foundation: E. Osborne Coates, Howard Kellogg, Esq., Morris Lloyd, the Rev. Thorne Sparkman and the Very Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel. Directors of the Church Foundation are elected by the members at the annual meeting of that corporation.

The chair declared the nomination to the Cathedral Chapter of: the Rev. Canon Alfred Vail, the Very Rev. Albert F. Fischer, Harry C. Parker and Samuel H. Ballam, Jr.

The Bishop made the following appointments:

JUDGES

The Rev. Herbert H. Beardsley — A. A. McCurry

ALTERNATES (Lay Tellers)

Samuel H. Ballam, Jr. — Harlan L. Graham
John Clapham — George L. Hinton
Samuel A. Dysart — Forbes E. McCann
Mrs. Robert D. Franklin — Miss Margaret Reed
Mrs. Helen Tillotson

Harry C. Barbin, Esq. presented the report of the Committee on Special Resolutions.

Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Twelves, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that this Convention takes note of the 100th Anniversary of the passing away of the third Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the RT. REVEREND ALONZO POTTER, D.D. (Bishop from 1845 to 1865),

And expresses its gratitude to Almighty God for this great Bishop, and for the many endeavors which he fostered for the establishment of Parishes and Institutions in this Diocese, and for his outstanding leadership in the Church at large.

The Chair called for a report from the Committee on the Claims of Clergy to Seats and from the Committee on the Claims of Laity to Seats. The Rev. John R. Logan and Milton Benson advised that no claims had come before their respective Committees.

The Bishop welcomed the representatives of St. Mary's Mission, Roxborough, and St. Dunstan, Blue Bell, both of which were seated in Convention for the first time. The Bishop asked their deputies to stand and they were greeted with applause.

Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr., president of the Episcopal Churchwomen, addressed the Convention. (Appendix J, page 148).

At 5:00 P.M., a recess was taken for Evening Prayer.

The polls were open for the first ballot and remained open until 6:15 P.M., at which time a recess was taken until 8:00 P.M.

At 8:00 P.M., the Bishop opened the evening session with prayer, during which he read the Necrology.

Mrs. Siter Owen presented the report of the Diocesan Committee on the Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ ("M. R. I.") (Appendix G26, page 122).

The Bishop presented his address (Appendix B, page 51)

The Convention adjourned at 9:15 P.M., to reconvene at 7:30 A.M.

SECOND DAY

181st ANNUAL CONVENTION

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY
RITTENHOUSE SQUARE, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA
TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1965

The Holy Eucharist was celebrated at 7:30 A.M.; the Bishop was the celebrant.

At 9:00 A.M., the Bishop called the Convention to order and the judges of election reported the results of the FIRST BALLOT (Appendix A, page 44).

The chair announced the following elections:

STANDING COMMITTEE: No election.
DEPUTIES TO PROVINCIAL SYNOD: The Rev. Francis P. Davis, the Rev. Charles H. Long, Jr., the Rev. James G. Ludwig, III; Samuel H. Ballam, Jr., the Hon. E. LeRoy Van Roden, Spencer D. Wright, III (one clerical and one lay deputy to be elected on a subsequent ballot). Canon Vail withdrew his name.
CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS: The Rev. C. Edward Hopkin, the Rev. Stanley Johnson, the Rev. Elbert K. St. Claire.

The Bishop announced that the SECOND BALLOT for the unfilled offices would follow. On motion, a recess for balloting was taken until 9:45 A.M.

The Rev. Dr. Wm. Roulston McKean reported for the Committee on the Dispatch of Business as to the agenda of the Convention.

The treasurer, Charles L. Ritchie, submitted the Treasurer's Report for 1964 by title and then submitted a report on The Diocesan Campaign for All Saints' Hospital and The Episcopal Church Center. (See Appendix G24, page 119).

The Rev. Dr. Tom T. Edwards, Chairman of the Program and Budget Committee, reported on the Proposed Missionary Budget for 1966, copies of which had been mailed. (Appendix D, page 59). He recommended that the Convention consider certain budget items separately, which procedure was approved.

Robert B. Seidel then reported for the Bishop's Committee to Study Clergy Salaries, a report of which Committee, together with a summary of the Proposed Salary Scale, had been mailed. (See Appendix G1, page 84.) Mr. Seidel contrasted clerical salaries with compensation in industry and other occupations and noted that the average industrial worker in Philadelphia earns more than do 36% of the clergy in this diocese. Mr. Seidel noted that the figures stated in the proposed budget are more recent and hence more exact than those shown in the Report of the Committee on Clergy Salaries.

A motion that all new items in the budget be voted upon separately failed to carry.

A motion was made that salary items (item No. 13 on Proposed Budget) be voted upon separately. Discussion ensued. The motion was withdrawn.

A motion that salary items be considered separately at this time carried.

Mr. Seidel answered questions with respect to the recommendations as to mileage allowance and comparison with teachers' salaries.

Dr. Edwards moved the adoption of the recommendation of the Clergy Salary Study Committee. Mr. Seidel further responded to numerous questions as to salaries, housing and transportation allowances, and suggested increments.

Upon motion, the following items under Article 13 of the Proposed Missionary Budget were approved: #1 Raising base salaries to $5,000, plus pension; #2 increasing housing allowance to $1,500; #3 increasing utilities allowance to $750; #4 increasing mileage allowance. (Action on the recommendation of the Clergy Salary Study Committee was subsequently taken as reported below.)

Upon request, Dr. Edwards then read portions of the recommendations of the committee and reread the recommendation relating to the budget item 13, #5. The question was asked as to whether ministry in other denominations was to be considered in connection with the increments referred to in item #5, to which Dr. Edwards replied that it was not the intention of the committee to include such other service. Extended discussion ensued. Upon motion, item #5, relating to increases for service increments, including 10-year and 5-year plans, was approved.

Dr. Edwards noted a slight increase in the budget for Episcopal Community Services, and commented on item No. 36, Financial Resources: executive secretary and office as recommended by the Diocesan Council. The Rev. Dr. Arnold Purdie presented a report on this proposed appointment. Dr. Purdie stated that the functions to be performed were as stated in the Report of Hay Associates and in the report of the treasurer as to the Diocesan Campaign, but that the title of the office had not yet been determined.

Dr. Edwards moved the adoption of this item. The treasurer, Mr. Ritchie, responded to a number of questions as to the function of the proposed executive secretary.

Several of the clergy raised the question as to whether this item No. 36, relating to the proposed executive secretary and his office, should be included in the Missionary Budget or whether it should be included as a diocesan expense. After discussion, the Bishop suggested that the consideration of this phase of the question be deferred until the Convention should decide whether or not to approve the item. Dr. Edwards described the services which the proposed executive secretary would make available to parishes and to institutions needing planning and advice in connection with fund-raising. A number of comments were made for and against this item.

The Rev. Dr. Aulenbach noted that Christ Church & St. Michaels had employed a part-time fund-raising associate, whose efforts will enable the parish to increase its contributions to the diocese by $1,000 in 1966, which statement was greeted with applause. The Very Rev. Peter C.Van der Hiel commented as to the budget requirements of the National Church and the decision made at the prior Convention to contribute one-half of what is received locally. After further discussion, the motion to approve item 36, relating to the employment of an executive secretary and the expenses incident to his office, at a figure of $20,000 for 1966, was approved.

Dr. Edwards then reported on item No. 37, relating to the Philadelphia Metropolitan Mission, as to which the Rev. Charles Long, Jr. reported in greater detail. Mr. Long explained that this Mission is supported by four denominations; that twenty-four persons are actively involved on the staff, some of whom obtain their compensation from other employment; that seven different churches are involved; that some of the personnel are "working missionaries" and others "roving missionaries" – the latter category including clergy obtaining salaries from their own denomination. Mr. Long explained that the objective of the Mission is to reach bodies of society not reached by the parish structure. After further discussion, upon motion by the Rev. Dr. Edwards, item No. 37, relating to the Philadelphia Metropolitan Mission, in the amount of $36,725, was approved for 1966.

Dr. Edwards then commented on item No. 10, Missionary to Areas of Tension, one-half the cost of which is requested for 1966 in the amount of $10,000. After discussion, this item was approved.

The items not theretofore considered specifically were then discussed. Upon motion by Dr. Edwards, the proposed Program and Budget for 1966, in the amount of $655,791, was approved.

A number of other questions were raised as to the relative priorities of the items included in the approved budget. The discussion indicated that the Convention will not be able to determine how much will be received towards these expenses, and that the matter of relative priorities should be left to the Diocesan Council and the Finance Department.

The Judges of Election reported the results of the SECOND BALLOT (Appendix A, page 44). The chair announced the following elections:

STANDING COMMITTEE: No election.
DEPUTIES TO PROVINCIAL SYNOD: No election. The Rev. Gustave J. Weltsek and Daniel M. Layman withdrew their names.
EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: The Rev. Paul Washington was elected. The Rev. Donald L. Farrow, the Rev. Walter K. Malone and the Rev. T. Gordon Ott withdrew their names.
TRIERS: No election. The Rev. Robert E. DuBose, Jr. withdrew his name.

A motion was made that on the THIRD BALLOT the candidates receiving the largest number of combined votes for Provincial Synod, Executive Council and Triers be declared elected. Carried.

The Secretary then introduced the following clergy who are new in the diocese:

The Rev. Michael R. Becker
Returning to St. Mark's

The Rev. Edward O. Hendricks
New Rector — St. Clement's

The Rev. Charles L. Poindexter
New Rector — St. Barnabas', Germantown

The Rev. Raymond R. Taylor
New Rector — Grace & Incarnation

The Rev. Paul Van Buren
Faculty — Temple University

The Very Rev. Nathaniel C. Acton then introduced to the Convention the Rev. Canon R. F. Cartwright, vicar of St. Mary, Redcliffe, Bristol, England, who made brief remarks.

Further discussion ensued as to whether the expenses in connection with the Executive Secretary for Financial Resources should be a diocesan expense or whether they should be included in the Missionary Budget previously approved. A motion that this item be determined to be an item of diocesan assessment rather than an item in the Missionary Budget was discussed at length and failed.

Discussion indicated that the question of relative priorities of the items in the Missionary Budget should be left to the Executive Council for determination, depending on the availability of funds.

The Chancellor of the Diocese, William White, Jr., Esq., submitted his report by title. (Appendix G7, page 95.)

Henry T. Dolan, Esq., chairman of the Committee on Canons, reported for the committee and offered the following resolutions, which were carried:

RESOLVED:

That Canon VI, Section I, be amended by changing the title "Executive Council of the Diocese" to read "Diocesan Council" and that without specific enumeration every other reference in the Canons to that body be amended correspondingly.

That Canon VII, Section V, subsections 2 and 5, be amended by changing the term "Church Pensions Fund Premiums" to read "Church Pension Fund Assessments," and that, without specific enumeration every other reference in the Canons to these payments be amended correspondingly.

That Canon VII, Section V, subsection 8, be moved to stand as subsection 2 of Canon VII, Section IV, and to number the present Canon VII, Section IV as subsection 1 of that section.

Mr. Dolan then offered a resolution amending Canon VII, Section VI, by adding a new subsection 6, to which Dean Peter C. Van der Hiel submitted an amendment. After discussion, the amendment was approved and the resolution was adopted as follows:

6. Any parish which is delinquent in its payments to the Church Pension Fund for a period of six months or more shall by that fact be held to have applied to the Bishop to become an Aided Parish, pursuant to Section V "Parishes Coming Under the Missionary Administration" of Canon VIII, "Of Diocesan Missions" and to have subjected itself to the requirements of subsections 2—12 thereof. Such parish shall continue to be an Aided Parish, and the provisions of Canon VIII, Section V, subsection 14, providing restoration to full parish status shall not become applicable until all Pension Assessments owing by reason of its employment, past or present, of any Clergy are paid in full, and full reimbursement made the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions for any sums advanced by the Commission at any time for payment of such Assessments.

Mr. Dolan then offered a resolution amending Canon VIII, subsections 1 and 14. Amendments thereto suggested by Dean Van der Hiel and the Rev. John A. Schultz were approved by separate votes and the resolution, as amended, was adopted as follows:

That Canon VIII, Section V, subsections 1 and 14, be amended (amendment italicized) to read:

1. Any Parish (a) whose Rector or other clergy are not in receipt of the minimum compensation required by Resolution of the Convention, and which is also unable to comply with the requirements of the Convention for receiving aid from the Rectors' Salaries and Pension Assessment, or (b) which is unable adequately to maintain its property or support all other functions and services normally expected from a place of worship, shall by such fact be held to have applied to the Bishop to become an Aided Parish, pursuant to Section V "Parishes Coming Under the Missionary Administration" of Canon VIII, "Of Diocesan Missions" and to have subjected itself to the requirements of subsections 2—12 thereof. Such Parish shall thereupon be entitled to receive aid from any Diocesan source, Missionary or otherwise. The Diocesan Council shall be responsible for determining when the facts listed under (a) and (b) actually exist in any Parish and so certifying to the Bishop.

14. Upon the Aided Parish having demonstrated over a period of two years to the satisfaction of the Bishop, its ability to pay the minimum compensation or its ability to meet the requirements of the Convention for obtaining aid from the Rectors' Salaries and pension Assessment, or, as the case may be, its ability adequately to maintain its property and support all other functions and services normally expected from a place of worship, full Parish status shall be regained, and if the Minister-in-Charge is one who was Rector when the Parish became an Aided Parish, he shall resume his tenure as Rector.

A recess was then taken for Noon Prayers, which were conducted by the Rev. Charles Henry Long, D.D.

Upon motion by the Rev. Canon Alfred Vail, the following resolution was adopted by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, the 181st Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania coincides with the 50th Anniversary of the Ordination to the Sacred Ministry of

WHEREAS, his entire ministry has been one of unstinting service to God through the instrumentalities of this Diocese; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of this Convention express their gratitude for his life and ministry by a rising vote of thanks; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Seal of the Diocese described and carved in a plaque mounted in the Hallway of the Church House be set aside to the Glory of God and in thanksgiving for the loyal service of Dr. Long; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this action be noted in the record of the proceedings, and that a suitable copy of this Resolution, signed by the Bishop of Pennsylvania and the Secretary of this Convention, be transmitted to the honored member of this body.

Mr. Dolan then proposed an amendment to Canon XVI, Section I, subsection 1. Mr. Dolan stated that this amendment to require approval of the Standing Committee for withdrawal of deposits from an agency agreement under certain circumstances is at the suggestion of the chancellor of the diocese. The resolution was adopted as follows:

RESOLVED:

That Canon XVI, Section I, subsection 1, be amended (amendment italicized) to read as follows:

1. Trust and permanent funds and all securities of whatsoever kind shall be placed in the custody of a National Bank, or a State Bank, Banking Institution or Trust Company, or other agency approved in writing by the Department of Finance, under a deed of trust, or under an agency agreement providing for at least two signatures on any order for the withdrawal of such funds or securities; or in trust with The Church Foundation. Where (a) funds have been deposited under a deed of trust containing a power of revocation, or (b) there has been a deposit under an agency agreement of any other funds or securities as to which an intention has been expressed by either the original donor or the depositor that the principal thereof be kept intact, and only the income derived therefrom expended, neither such power of revocation nor the right of withdrawal from such agency shall be exercised unless the same be approved by the Standing Committee of the Diocese. But these requirements shall not apply to securities or funds refused by such depositories as being too small for acceptance. Such securities and small funds shall be under the care of the persons or corporations properly responsible for them.

Mr. Dolan then proposed an amendment to Canon XVI, Section I, subsection 7, incorporating the amendment made with respect to prior resolutions by Dean Van der Hiel, which he stated is in response to suggestions developing from several sources to meet the effect of a recent change in Pennsylvania law by which charitable corporations, specifically hospitals, no longer enjoy immunity against legal action for negligence of their officers, agents, servants, and employees.

In response to several questions concerning the adequacy of insurance, Mr. Dolan expressed his opinion that the Diocesan Council (formerly "Executive" Council) could decide as to what coverage was needed. Mr. Dolan further commented on the need for larger automobile liability insurance coverage than had ordinarily been carried in the past years. The resolution amending Canon XVI, Section I, subsection 7, was adopted as follows:

RESOLVED:

That Canon XVI, Section I, subsection 7, be amended by substituting for the same the following:

7. Every organization named above shall maintain adequate insurance on its buildings, their contents, and its premises against fire, windstorm and other casualty. It shall also insure against public liability for personal injury and property damage asserted against it by reason of its own acts, those of its officers, agents, servants or employees, or its ownership, rental, tenancy, occupancy or use of any real estate, or operation in any of its activities of motor vehicles owned or not owned by it. The Diocesan Council may, from time to time, review the amounts of insurance carried, and if it finds the same to be inadequate, shall have the power to require any such coverages to be increased. Any organization which fails to fulfill such requirement shall by that fact be held to have applied to the Bishop to become an Aided Parish, pursuant to Section V "Parishes Coming Under the Missionary Administration" of Canon VIII, "Of Diocesan Missions", and to have subjected itself to the requirements of subsections 2-12 thereof, such status to continue until the organization demonstrates its ability and willingness to fulfill such requirement.

A proposal suggested by the Rev. Hadley B. Williams to the Committee on Special Resolutions concerning balloting by mail was ordered to be referred to the Committee on Canons since a question of the Constitution of the Diocese may be involved.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. McKean, acting for the Committee on Dispatch of Business, a recess was taken until 2:00 P.M., during which time the polls were open for balloting.

At 2:00 P.M., the chair called the Convention to order. Harry C. Barbin, Esq. reported for the Committee on Special Resolutions as to the scheduling of each special resolution for consideration at an appropriate point in the agenda with the exception of the special resolution previously mentioned relating to voting by mail, which had been referred to the Committee on Canons for consideration at a subsequent convention.

The Rev. Dr. Stanley R. West, chairman, presented the report of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions (See Appendix G23, page 118).

G. Selden Pitt, Esq., chairman, reported for the Committee on Incorporation and moved the following resolutions, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE RECTOR, CHURCHWARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION, Philadelphia, be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE RECTOR, CHURCHWARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF SAINT LUKE'S CHURCH IN THE COUNTY OF BUCKS, be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court of grant the same.

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of SAINT MARY'S MEMORIAL CHURCH, WAYNE, be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF THE MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. PAUL, OVERBROOK, be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

Mr. Pitt then noted that the committee finds that the proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation of the minister, church wardens and vestrymen of the African Episcopal Church of St. Thomas in the City of Philadelphia are in substantial conformity with the approved Articles of Incorporation, with the exception that they do not provide that in case of the dissolution of the corporation all its property shall vest in the Church Foundation and, therefore, the committee offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of THE MINISTER, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF THE AFRICAN EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF ST. THOMAS, IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, be approved, conditioned upon a further amendment thereof, incorporating into such Articles the provisions of Article 9, Section 3 of the approved form of Articles of Incorporation appended to the 1964 Printing of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same, upon submission to the Committee on Incorporation of such an amendment and approval thereof by such Committee, without further action of a Convention of the Diocese.

The Judges of Election reported the results of the THIRD BALLOT (Appendix A, page 45). The chair announced the following elections in accordance with the resolution adopted previously upon receipt of the Second Ballot.

For STANDING COMMITTEE: No election. The Rev. Dr. Purdie withdrew his name.
For DEPUTIES TO PROVINCIAL SYNOD: The Rev. John Schultz, Mr. Edward Bromley
For DIOCESAN COUNCIL: The Rev. Warren H. Davis, Messrs. William Bishop and Edward F. R. Wood, Jr.
For TRIER: The Rev. Otho S. Hoofnagle

The Chair announced that another ballot would be taken for election of one clerical member of the Standing Committee.

Robert B. Seidel presented recommendations of the Bishop's Committee to Study Clergy Salaries, and on motion by Mr. Jefferys each of the following resolutions was adopted:

RESOLVED, That there shall be established in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, for all priests engaged in the full time ministry, in the employ of the Diocese, its parishes or its missions:

A minimum base cash stipend of no less than $5,000;

The free use of adequate housing, together with the normal and necessary expenses of maintenance, including taxes, heat, gas, water and electricity; or else, in lieu thereof the sum of $2,250 in cash as a rental allowance. In either case, at least one telephone shall be provided for professional use;

An allowance for service in the ministry of a minimum increment of $100 per year for ten years beginning with the first year following ordination to the priesthood; and thereafter a service increment of $100 for every five additional years in the ministry;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That for all clergy canonically resident in the Diocese who are actively engaged in the ministry of the Church in this Diocese, there shall be provided an automobile, its maintenance, and all professional operating expenses, plus reimbursement for tolls and parking fees incurred in the exercise of professional duties, or else an allowance in lieu thereof of 10¢ a mile for the first 15,000 miles and 8¢ a mile thereafter for professional use of the clergyman's car. Provision shall be made for reimbursement of the clergy for the use of public transportation where this is necessary.

RESOLVED, That all parishes, parishes under Missionary Administration and missions of the Diocese give annual consideration to salary increments and bonuses for the effective work and the degree of responsibility of their clergy over and above the minimum adopted by the Convention; (the suggested minimums are to be considered as minimums only and not as ceilings on the remuneration of the clergy) and that all clergy shall be reimbursed for professional expenses such as the entertainment of parishioners and prospective parishioners, and of students in the case of a ministry to a university or college campus.

RESOLVED, That a continuing committee be appointed to be charged with the responsibility of studying all variables affecting fair and equitable remuneration of clergy, using as standards the remuneration in commensurate professions; and to report any recommended changes in the Diocesan salary scale to the annual Convention of the Diocese from year to year.

RESOLVED, That a committee be established to conduct, with the assistance of the Diocesan Committee on Research and Planning, a survey on the use of clergy time; and to develop criteria for the evaluation of the effectiveness of a clergyman's work, with a view to assisting the clergy in judging their own ministry, and to helping vestries and Bishop's Committees in assessing the work of their own rectors, vicars or curates.

RESOLVED, That a study be made as soon as possible by the Research and Planning Committee of conditions concerning the employment and pensioning of full-time lay Church employees, such as secretaries, bookkeepers, sextons, etc., and that a confidential report be made to the rectors, vicars, vestries and Bishop's Committees without delay, for their guidance in determining fair and adequate compensation for Church employees engaged in these fields of work.

In response to a question, the Ven. John D. McCarty advised that service in the diaconate prior to ordination to the priesthood would not be counted in computing the "service increments" of the above resolutions.

Discussion ensued as to the effective date of the foregoing resolutions. The Rev. Dr. Jesse Anderson suggested that the date be fixed at July 1, 1965, but withdrew this suggestion. The treasurer, Mr. Ritchie, suggested that the report of The Rev. Dr. Edwards indicated that the timing might be left to the Diocesan Council. The Rev. John Schultz suggested that October 1 be the effective date, which suggestion was discussed but failed to carry. The Rev. William Jeffreys then moved that the Diocesan Council be authorized to apply the new minimum salary scale to the ministers in charge of aided parishes and vicars of Diocesan missions as soon as in their discretion they feel it is financially feasible. Carried.

The Rev. Ronald S. Lindsey offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED that the new minimum for salaries and other compensation for all priests engaged in the full time ministry, in the employ of the Diocese, its parishes or its missions be effective at the conclusion of this Convention but not subject to the provisions of Canon VIII until January 1, 1966. Carried.

The Bishop requested the secretary to publish action taken with respect to clerical compensation and related matters within one month.

A. Mitchell Shumate, executive vice-president, presented the report of the Church Foundation by title. Gordon Crouter supplemented the report with remarks as to the functions and operations of The Church Foundation. (See Appendix G3, page 90).

Robert Allen submitted a progress report for the Committee on Self Study of the Diocese.

The Bishop announced that the Communion alms from the morning Celebration, amounting to $164.68, would be designated for the use of M. R. I.

The Judges reported the results of the FOURTH BALLOT. (Appendix A, page 45). The Chair announced the following election:

For STANDING COMMITTEE: the Very Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel.

Harry Parker submitted the report of the Cathedral Chapter by title. (See (Appendix G6, page 93).

The Rev. Dr. Harry S. Longely, Jr. submitted the report of the Department of Communications by title. (See Appendix G16, page 110). Dr. Longely introduced Georges Carousso, the proposed chairman of the Department of Communications.

The Very Rev. Robert M. Wainwright submitted the report of the Department of Finance by title. (See Appendix G18, page 113).

The Rev. Canon Alfred Vail submitted the report of the Department of Missions by title. (See Appendix G19, page 114).

The Rev. Paul M. Washington presented the report of the Department of Christian Social Relations by title. (See Appendix G14, page 106).

The Rev. Edward L. Lee, Jr. offered the following resolution concerning public birth control resources, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, the increasing rate of population growth both at home and abroad poses a most serious threat to the well-being of men and nations; and

WHEREAS, the presence in a family of a larger number of children than can be effectively nurtured, cared for, and educated poses a most serious threat to the well-being of the parents as well as the children in such families; and

WHEREAS, one of the significant causes and conditions of poverty locally and nationally is an expanding population that continually outdistances the ability of society to provide adequate housing, education or employment; and

WHEREAS, family planning and birth control information and methods that have been available in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and City of Philadelphia have been provided almost exclusively through private and voluntary health and welfare resources which are not capable of coping with a problem involving such vast numbers of people; and

WHEREAS, the Lambeth Conference of 1958 in Resolution 115 on "The Family in Contemporary Society" stated its belief "that the responsibility for deciding upon the number and frequency of children has been laid by God upon the consciences of parents everywhere; that this planning, in such ways as are mutually acceptable to husband and wife in Christian conscience, is a right and important factor in Christian family life and should be the result of positive choice before God. Such responsible parenthood, built on obedience to all the duties of marriage, requires a wise stewardship of the resources and abilities of the family as well as a thoughtful consideration of the varying population needs and problems of society and the claims of future generations."

WHEREAS, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in 1964 adopted a resolution calling for appropriate action toward the provision of adequate community resources for family planning which would include public health and welfare agencies; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the 181st Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania requests and urges the Governor and the Secretary of Welfare of this Commonwealth as well as the Mayor and Commissioner of Public Health of the City of Philadelphia that family planning and birth control information, instruction, and medically approved methods and means be made available at once in and through the public health and welfare agencies, clinics, and hospitals of the Commonwealth and the City, on an equal and open basis as are other medical health and welfare resources, but in such a manner that the consciences and religious convictions of public health or welfare clients be respected.

The Rev. Herbert H. Beardsley presented a resolution relating to the United Nations Genocide and Human Rights Convention (See Appendix H, page 127). The Hon. E. LeRoy Van Roden spoke, reading excerpts from a report presented to the American Bar Association. Judge Van Roden urged defeat of the resolution. A motion to limit speeches to three minutes was carried. The Rev. Dr. Peter M. Peterson and the Rev. Arthur C. Barnhart urged adoption of the resolution. Richard Tudor spoke in opposition. The chair declared that a voice vote was uncertain and directed the secretary and assistant secretary to count a standing vote. The chair then declared that the resolution had failed by a vote of 176 against and 143 for the resolution.

The Rev. Dr. Arnold Purdie, acting for the Committee on the Organization and Structure of the Diocese moved adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the 182nd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be convened on the third Monday in January, 1966.

Objections were raised as to the inclement weather and questions were raised as to the availability of parochial reports in January. Dr. Purdie suggested that the standards of the preceding year could be used as to questions of eligibility. Dean Robert M. Wainwright noted that the proposal had the unanimous support of the Diocesan Council. The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Hadley B. Williams then noted that the debate on the resolution had related solely to the month, not to the day of the week, and offered the following:

RESOLVED, that the 182nd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be held on the Friday and Saturday of the week and month chosen.

After discussion as to the relative merits of the days, the resolution was adopted and the chair declared that the 182nd Convention would be held on Friday, January 21, and Saturday, January 22, 1966.

The Rev. Dr. Jesse Anderson moved the adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, crucial and long overdue changes are required to provide more adequately for public education in the City of Philadelphia; and

WHEREAS, the proposals of the Home Rule Charter Commission embody some of the best viable solutions to some of the most crucial of these necessary changes; therefore,

Be it RESOLVED, that the 181st Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania record its endorsement of the proposals of the Home Rule Charter Commission to be submitted to the electorate of the City of Philadelphia on May 18, 1965; and

Be it further RESOLVED, that clergy and all Church-people of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be urged to use their moral leadership and most earnest efforts to secure ratification of these proposals at the May 18, 1965 Primary Election in the City of Philadelphia.

Dr. Anderson noted that the Educational Home Rule Charter Commission of Philadelphia had circulated a statement describing the principal features of the proposed supplement to the Home Rule Charter. After discussion, the resolution was adopted.

Dr. Anderson moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Be it RESOLVED, that the 181st Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania join with other churches, synagogues, and religious societies of the Greater Philadelphia area in an increasing concern about the divisive activities and hatemongering by extremists groups in this area. In religious leadership's concern for the moral advancement of society, the desire for harmonious relations, brotherly love, and the furthering of democratic processes in the community, the members of this Convention, by this Resolution, express their opposition to:

(1) threats, advocacy and use of violence;
(2) false or loose accusations of persons as unAmerican, Communist, Fascist, etc., simply because of difference of opinion;
(3) printing and distribution of literature that relies on half-truths, innuendos, and outright lies to generate racial, religious and class hatred;
(4) harassment of individuals by anonymous phone calls and letters, deliveries of unordered goods, filing of unwarranted complaints; and,

condemn all divisive appeals and tactics which prevent free and open public discussion of issues, call upon religious leaders of all faiths, school and civic leaders, and public officials to use every opportunity to point out the difference between honest difference of opinion and discussion and the use of tactics such as those listed above which set group against group, race against race and debase and destroy the processes of democracy.

Be it further RESOLVED, that all clergy, and Vestries and Bishop's Committees of Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, be urged to endorse this Resolution on this subject and to authorize the Religious Council for Equality to use their individual and corporate names in the release of a statement identical to this Resolution.

The Rev. Donald Farrow presented the report of the Department of Christian Education by title. (Appendix G13, page 102).

The Rev. James G. Ludwig, III presented the report of the Department of Laymen's Work by title.

Richard Tudor presented a resolution on the relationship of the diocese to civil disobedience. Extended discussion ensued. Upon motion, the resolution was tabled.

The Rev. William Blewett, Ph. D., reported for the Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions. (See Appendix G15, page 108).

The Rev. Charles Long, Jr., presented the report of the Committee on Ecumenical Relations (Appendix G11, page 98) and welcomed to the Convention the following Ecumenical representatives:

The Very Rev. Nicholas Senofsky, Philadelphia Council of Orthodox Churches; the Rt. Rev. Papken Varjabedian, The Armenian Church of America; the Rev. Herbert Gearhart, president, Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches; the Rev. William B. Powell, general secretary, GPCC; the Rev. Harold E. Millard, executive secretary, Pennsylvania Council of Churches; the Rev. Henry Zehner, Evangelical United Bretheren, the Rev. Theodore L. Fischer, Luthern Church; Dr. Shelton B. Waters, vice-moderator, Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Mr. Long expressed the thanks of the Committee on Ecumenical Relations to Harry Broadbent and asked leave to print the names of the churches which are members of the Council of Churches in the appendix. (Appendix G12, page 100).

The Rev. Paul M. Washington reported on the work at the Church of the Advocate by title and distributed to the deputies a brochure on that church's activities.

A report of the Episcopal Co-operating Committee for the Chinese Christian Church and Center was circulated.

The Rev. Hadley B. Williams presented the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that each salary paid by the Diocese, in whole or in part, and each allowance for maintenance (housing, utilities, etc.) plus any travel allowance, in whole or in part, be published in the Journal of the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

After discussion, a vote was taken. The chair directed that a standing vote be counted, which failed to carry by 134 against and 90 for the resolution.

The Rev. Dr. Cuthbert Pratt presented the following resolution which was adopted:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 181st Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania convey to the Salvation Army sincere congratulations in the course of its Centennial Year and its 84th year of work in the Greater Philadelphia district.

The Chancellor, William White, Jr., Esq., presented the following resolution which was adopted:

RESOLVED, that this Convention hereby amends Standing Order V by adding a new paragraph 1 to read as follows:

1. Not less than three months in advance of each annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint a committee of at least ten members to make nominations for all Diocesan offices to be filled at such Convention. The Nominating Committee shall present its nominations to the Committee on Elections not less than 40 days prior to the annual Convention.

RESOLVED further, that present paragraphs 1 to 7 of Standing Order V be renumbered 2 – 8.

The Rev. Dr. Arnold Purdie presented the report of the Episcopal Community Services by title and noted that there had been distributed in the pews the annual reports entitled "Episcopal Community Services – 95 Years of Christian Service in a Changing World – 1964 Annual Report" and "The Children's Center of the Episcopal Church – 1964 Annual Report".

The Bishop presented his report by title. (Appendix B, page 51).

The chair directed the filing by title of the report on the Fund for the Episcopate (See Treasurer's Report).

The Rev. Dr. James R. MacColl, III, presented the report of the Standing Committee by title. (Appendix F, page 82).

The Rev. Charles F. Ehly presented the report of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library by title. (Appendix G20, page 115).

The Rev. Francis P. Davis presented the report of the Board of Examining Chaplains (Appendix G4, page 91) and offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, that the appropriation for $150 for expenses of the Board of Examining Chaplains be continued.

The Rev. Wilfred F. Penny requested that the rules be waived in order that he might present a resolution relating to the Major Medical Plan of the Diocese. The chair declared that permission had been granted by more than the required two-thirds majority, whereupon Mr. Penny moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Be it RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Council make a study of the discrepancies in benefits and consider the appointment of an agent to represent the interests of the participants in the Major Medical Plan in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Robert C. Forster presented the report of the Committee on Music by title. (Appendix G22, page 117).

The Rev. Dr. McKean presented the following resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED, that the Resolutions adopted with respect to salary structure be published in the Church News.

RESOLVED, that the Bishop be authorized to appoint Committees following adjournment of the Convention.

RESOLVED, that this Convention shall reconvene at such time and date prior to the 182nd Convention as shall be determined by the Bishop.

RESOLVED, that 1,250 copies of the Journal and 1,000 copies of the Directory be printed and distributed as usual.

The Rev. William H. Jefferys recommended the publication of salaries of clergy in the Diocese.

Harry C. Barbin, Esq., chairman of the Committee on Special Resolutions, raised a point of order that such resolutions at this point of the Convention required the vote of a two-thirds majority. A vote was taken and the chair declared that the necessary two-thirds vote had failed.

The Rev. Dr. McKean moved the following resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED, that the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

RESOLVED, that the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention the honorarium of $100.00 plus reimbursement for his expenses in connection with this Convention.

RESOLVED, that the bill for the installation of the public address system be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

The Bishop declared that the 182nd Convention would be held on Friday, January 21, and Saturday, January 22, 1966, pursuant to the resolutions previously adopted.

A moment of silent prayer was held during which prayers were urged for improvement of conditions in Southeast Asia.

At 5:25 P.M., after a Benediction by the Bishop, the Convention adjourned, subject to call by the Bishop or until the 182nd Convention.

ROBERT L. DEWITT
President of the Convention

APPENDIX B

REMARKS OF THE RT. REV. ROBERT L. DeWITT TO THE 181ST CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PA., MONDAY, MAY 3, 1965

It is inconceivable that any annual convention of this or any diocese could meet on any year in the latter half of the twentieth century without recognizing that it was meeting under apocalyptic skies. Any diocesan convention necessarily addresses itself to the seemingly pedestrian matters of the internal life of that diocese, – budgets, personnel, reports, canons. But it is a matter of prime importance the kind of external life in which that internal life is placed. The Diocese of Pennsylvania lives its life today in a world of Selma and Saigon, of moon shots and Telstar, of the stretching and shrinking of space and time. It has come to pass that every day is the Last Judgment, and the pedestrian issues of our internal diocesan life are decided in the face of that Last Judgment. Consequently, these convention issues have a dignity and destiny not their own. They are not what they seem.

I could wish you all might have had an opportunity to have sat with the M.R.I. Committee. It is not possible that Mrs. Owen's report, incisive though it was, could do justice to the quality of the deliberations reported. One has the deeply reassuring feeling that that committee is in touch with reality. It is reading the signs of our times. Its recommendations will be such as will be appropriate at the Last Judgment.

With this introduction, let me proceed to the issues concerning which I feel I should report to you.

The first thing which I would like to report is a feeling of gratitude, – gratitude on my part for the presence in this diocese of scores of men and women, clergy and lay, whose assumption of responsibility on dozens of committees and commissions and other places of strategic importance in the life of the diocese in fact make possible the life of the diocese. To a newcomer, it is very much like the feeling of being a part of a family. As one ranges this great diocese, metropolitan Philadelphia and its environs, it is appropriate and fitting that one should sense a family working in concert; for this area is one neighborhood, one family in very fact.

A senior clergyman of the diocese placed in my hands a few months ago some wise words on this subject from an unexpected source. It was a copy of the address given to this convention by Bishop Rhinelander in 1917. I have previously shared excerpts from this address with some of you. It strikes me with great force that a Bishop writing nearly fifty years ago in this diocese could exhibit the prophetic insight which I find in that address. Let me quote briefly:

"I would plead for a larger and a more generous recognition of the diocese as such; in the belief made stronger by every day's experience, that the diocese, rather than the parish, is both the working unit of the Church's organization and the cell of its organic life and growth; and that in these days, and particularly in a great urban and industrial community such as this, the tasks pressing to be done, and the open doors inviting entrance, are quite distinctly and definitely diocesan in scope and character; that nothing else or less than the diocese can be our instrument if we would seriously and effectively work together for the Kingdom.....parochialism has gone so far with us that we have become practically congregational. The meaning of the church is practically completed if not exhausted for us in the sum total of our congregations.....I do not desire now to outline any program, nor to ask for any action. What I do earnestly desire is that you should seriously think over the diocesan side of our common life, and make diocesan ideals and opportunities as much your own responsibility as they are, and must be, mine." The reason I have quoted Bishop Rhinelander at some length is because the growth of urbanization and industrialization, the growing inter-relatedness of our metropolitan community, have given to his words even greater cogency than they had the day he uttered them.

I would like, therefore, to speak with you tonight concerning our Diocese, sharing with you some of my concerns and hopes, and also underscoring some of the aspects of that common diocesan life which will come before you for your consideration in this Diocesan Convention.

First, I would like to say a few words concerning our day-to-day life as a diocese, the ongoing administration of our common life. I sometimes feel much in the position of the rector of a growing parish who, obtaining the assistance of another clergyman on his staff, discovers that one of the real difficulties he encounters in the intelligent ordering of their mutual work is the accumulated tradition of expectation on the part of the parishioners regarding the office of rector. Yet, manifestly, if the rector is expected to fulfill personally all of the pastoral and priestly functions in that parish, that parish will be poorly administered, and poorly ministered to. Only by being allowed to enable his assistant to have a full ministry in that parish, can the rector have a fulfilling ministry himself.

So it is in the life of the diocese. The great multiplicity of boards and committies and commissions which perform so much of the work of our diocesan organization are staffed with people of particular abilities who competently encompass their work. To expect the Bishop to be in attendance at such meetings – except for some special circumstances and occasions – is poor stewardship of time. The same principle obtains with reference to the very able and highly efficient incumbents of the offices of Canon to the Ordinary, and Archdeacon. These are relatively new offices in the life of our diocese, and we have a great deal to learn yet as to how most effectively to use these offices.

I think I should be of more help to all of you by delineating more precisely the particular areas where these two men would prove better resources to you than would the Bishop. You can be of help to me by increasingly turning to them directly in such areas. The daily contacts as well as the regular weekly meetings which I have with them make it possible for them to speak for me in many situations and with reference to many questions which arise as they go about their work. In a very real sense, they speak on my behalf.

I thus bespeak my desire for a higher measure of delegation of the responsibilities traditionally associated with the office of Bishop. I request the same openness on your part as I attempt to explore the best way of filling the office of Bishop, as a parish rector would request as he attempted to work out the most intelligent and effective cooperative ministry with his new assistant.

Such a discussion inevitably brings to mind the matter of a Suffragan Bishop for the diocese, and I would like to speak to this in a few minutes, after touching upon other matters of concern to us all.

This convention will be asked to make some decisions with reference to a very responsible proposal concerning clergy salaries. These proposals are made in response to the unanimous request of the Convention a year ago that such a study and such proposals be made. A highly competent committee has made a very thorough study. A summary report has been placed in your hand and there will be ample time for discussion of it on the floor of Convention. I would like to point out, however, what to me is the cardinal principle involved. It is the principle that we are interdependent and responsible for each other. That effecting an adequate salary base for all of the clergy of the diocese will require a larger diocesan budget is manifest. That the diocese has gotten by on its present budget is true. It is also true that our diocesan budget has in effect been underwritten in part by means of underpaying some of our clergy. There can be no doubt that real financial injustice is being worked on many of our diocesan clergy under the present salary schedule. You will have presented to you at this Convention a carefully prepared program whereby we can do something to rectify this situation.

Later in the Convention, you will hear a report on the current Diocesan Campaign. That such a hopeful report is possible – even though preliminary – is due to the highly intelligent and dedicated effort of Mr. Charles Ritchie, Campaign Chairman, and the dozens of workers who have assisted him. There yet remains the responsible efforts of all of our parishes and missions in order to realize our objective.

The efforts expended in carrying out this Diocesan Campaign have highlighted a need which was indicated to the diocese by the organization survey made by Hay Associates some few years ago. It has been said that in this diocese there are many people who have the responsibility for spending the money, but no one who has the responsibility for raising it! In the words of the Hay Report to which I referred, this diocese needs, and provision is made in the proposed budget, for an Executive Secretary for Financial Resources. The Executive Council has acted to make it possible to secure such a person this calendar year.

I would like next to say a few words about the Cathedral at Roxborough. Two years or so ago, Bishop Armstrong asked Mr. Blair Lee to chair a committee to make recommendations to him as to what should be done with reference to the Cathedral concept. A thorough study of all aspects of the situation was made by that committee, and they made a recommendation to me which received the unanimous approval of the Cathedral Chapter. Simply put, their recommendation is that the plan for the completion of the Cathedral be put indefinitely in the "deep freeze". Their appraisal, and I concur, is that this is not the time in the life of this diocese to embark upon an effort looking toward the accumulation of many millions of dollars to complete a vast building when there are so many other pressing needs crowding in upon us. It is hoped that the present flourishing congregation which uses the Cathedral facilities will continue to be able to work out mutually satisfactory arrangements with the Cathedral Chapter so that they can continue to be housed at that location. We are not attempting hereby to stay the hand of future generations to whom and for whom the building of a Cathedral may have real urgency and meaning. We are attempting hereby to resolve the indecision which has hovered over that building for some years, and to adopt as a matter of clear policy that we are not going to do anything about it for the predictable future.

I mentioned in my Convention Address a year ago that the last Episcopal decision I made jointly with Bishop Armstrong, with his strong support, was the calling of the Reverend Layton Zimmer to a special post as representative of and consultant to the Bishops in areas of racial tension. That interim appointment ran for six months on the basis of a leave of absence for Father Zimmer from Trinity Church, Swarthmore. So effectively and sensitively did he do his work, that many members of the community at large as well as members of the diocese have strongly urged me to make that post permanent. Events of the past twelve months have made this urging thoroughly justified, and I am happy to announce that Father Zimmer has accepted a call to serve on an on-going basis on the diocesan staff, filling a ministry to areas of tension. This is an area of ministry, in Bishop Rhinelander's words "quite distinctly and definitely diocesan in scope and character". We have good reason to be deeply hopeful that this ministry will significantly deepen the effectiveness of our work as a diocese.

Another area of our common life which demands our attention is the way in which we can together make ourselves more effective ministers of the Gospel, both ordained and lay. The demands of our times require new understandings, new responses. And we are, many of us, becoming aware of the ways in which we need the help of each other if we are properly to understand and adequately to speak to the urgent needs of our time. The Diocese of Los Angeles is creating a program of continuing education for clergy and laity so comprehensive that, in effect, it will be the central program of that diocese. Two of our parishes are granting sabbatical leaves for their rectors to give them the opportunity for renewal so long recognized as necessary in the academic world. The Philadelphia Divinity School has been offering courses for lay persons in order that they might deepen their understanding of their faith. There are highly qualified resources at the Divinity School which might be available for an extension of these efforts. We have an excellent facility at Denbigh for overnight conferences for clergy and laity alike. We have an embarrassing wealth of people in this diocese of particular competencies to help us to a deeper understanding of our local mission field, – the areas of public education, of business, of community needs, of poverty, of unemployment. We must be better informed if we are to minister wisely. A committee under the chairmanship of the Reverend Richard Herschel is studying to find ways whereby we can jointly enter into a process of continuing education, both as clergy and as laymen, so that we may all be better equipped for the work of our ministry. In the immediate months which lie ahead, I hope that we will be hearing more from this Committee on Continuing Education.

One of the hardest working committees of the diocese has been the Committee on Organization and Structure under the wise and tireless leadership of Dr. Arnold Purdie. This committee has addressed itself, most helpfully, to several aspects of our diocesan organization and structure. I wish particularly to speak of two of the subcommittees which have been hard at work. One, under the leadership of Father Emmett Page, has been addressing itself to the matter of Confirmation services, and the other, under the chairmanship of Dr. James MacColl, has been working on the matter of episcopal visitations. I would like to say a word about the work of these two committees. There are two major problems involved. The first is that the Bishop of the Diocese is required by canon, and it is entirely appropriate to his role as "Father in God", to visit regularly the churches of his diocese. Parish clergy across the country, as well as Bishops themselves, bear eloquent testimony to the unsatisfactory nature of most such episcopal visitations. Too often these visitations give the impression of a Bishop dashing in and out. Too often these visitations have a "hit and run" quality to them. A considerable part of the reason for this is the preempting of the visitation by the preparation and conducting of the Service of Confirmation when the Bishop visits. Indeed, for the average layman, the Bishop's visitation essentially means his coming for Confirmation. The second problem is the other side of this. There is considerable evidence that the Episcopal Church, with its "congregationalism" to which Bishop Rhinelander referred fifty years ago, sees Confirmation as joining a particular parish. Too often we fail to see Confirmation as a sign of membership in the people of God of which the diocese is the real family unit. I am concerned that the visits of the Bishop be as unhurried and as meaningful as possible: that they provide a maximum opportunity for the Bishop to come to know the parish and the people, and for the people to come to know the Bishop. The Committee on Visitations has already submitted a preliminary report, and is continuing to work on a design for episcopal visitations which will have some real depth of meaning and significance. Occasionally, over the past year, I have found myself in earnest conversation with a rector, at the time of a visitation, on issues of real concern to him. Several times I have had opportunity, at a visitation, to share with the clergyman some deep concerns of my own. Once in a while I have had meetings with vestries wherein we have touched helpfully on issues which urgently needed clarification. But these are occasional, almost accidental, occurrences. Yet they are precisely the reason for visitations. Such communication should be the rule, not the exception. We all need to know each other better, to help make a real family out of this diocese, and to relieve the isolation and dispel the misunderstandings which arise when there is not adequate communication. We need, therefore, more meaningful visitations of the Bishop. One of the factors which will help make that possible is the separating of Confirmation from the Bishop's Visitation.

And here I refer to the report of the Committee on Confirmations which has commended itself to me so strongly that, having discussed this with the clergy of the diocese, I intend to give it a three year trial period. Briefly, this will involve the grouping of parishes and missions for Confirmation Services. A number of parishes and missions joining together at the same time in some large, centrally located church, will make possible a greatly triumphant and deeply meaningful service at which those being confirmed will also have opportunity to make their first Communion. Such a service of Confirmation will dramatize graphically that the individual is not confirmed into a local parish but into the larger Church of God. It will greatly facilitate the scheduling of Confirmation Services. This will make it possible for the clergy to schedule approximately the same date from year-to-year, making for better planning of their Confirmation instruction. Knowing of the deep concern of many Bishops across the country over these very problems to which I have been speaking, I hope our experience here may prove a help to other dioceses which are puzzling over the same problem.

Finally, I would like to review with you my own feelings concerning the matter of the election of a Suffragan Bishop. If I may quote once more from my address of a year ago, "On the one hand, it is difficult to imagine one Bishop adequately handling the episcopal functions in a diocese as large as this. On the other hand, a serious consideration of possible changes in our structure might alter materially our concept of the function a Suffragan would serve, and therefore the kind of person who would be needed. Therefore, it is my intention to ask the Convention for episcopal assistance in the form of a Suffragan Bishop; but, once the necessary consents have been secured, to defer such election 'till such time as we have had opportunity to review thoughtfully our organizational structure. This may well be a matter of months, or even more". The Committee on Organization and Structure has been reviewing most thoughtfully this whole matter. Many of the points I have mentioned this evening have been the result of such thought, and may serve to illustrate how complex the question is. Until we are able to delineate clearly, and act accordingly, with reference to what functions can only or best be filled by a Bishop, and what functions can best be delegated to other appropriately trained and qualified persons, I do not feel we are in a position to commit a man to the role of a Suffragan Bishop in this diocese. At this particular time, for example, I would feel very strongly that to bring a Suffragan Bishop into this diocese would be confusion compounded. We need to see more clearly whether a Suffragan Bishop is, in fact, our most urgent organizational need. For example, the office of the Executive Secretary for Administration is currently under professional review. Question has been raised, rightly, as to whether a diocese the size of this has not been expecting the impossible of Mr. Bole's office. This is the kind of question we must answer. Such questions relating to the complexities of the problem of episcopal assistance are not peculiar to this diocese. It is a problem common to all the large and growing dioceses of our country. Here, too, if with intelligence and responsible concern we attempt as carefully as possible to analyze our needs and see how they can best be met, we may not only serve our own purposes, but also make a contribution of leadership to the general Church. But whether these needs ultimately can best be met by the election of a Suffragan Bishop is still in my mind an open question. I hope it will remain so in your minds until the question is intelligently resolved.

In the meantime, life goes on! And so, with reference to the Episcopal Office, the Confirmations, Ordinations, Consecrations of churches, counselling with clergy and laity, and the other joys and responsibilities of the Office of Bishop, I am grateful for the tremendous assistance rendered to all of us by the devoted service of Bishop Hart and Bishop Tsu and two of our neighboring Bishops in the past, and hope that their services will continue. But during this period of appraisal, knowing that we need temporary help, I hope you will rejoice with me in the fact that the Right Reverend Albert Ervine Swift, recently resigned Bishop of the Missionary District of Puerto Rico, will be sharing in the life of this diocese as "Assistant to the Bishop of Pennsylvania". This step has been taken following full discussion with and endorsement of both the Committee on Organization and Structure, and the Standing Committee.

Bishop Swift, as some of you may know, has been a missionary all his life. He has served in China, the Philippines, and Puerto Rico, in addition to serving for a period as Acting Director of the Overseas Department of the Episcopal Church. Missionary strategy has recognized for many years the advisability of raising an indigenous or native ministry in any missionary area as soon as practicable. Bishop Swift's efforts in Puerto Rico finally reached the point where it was possible to elect a native Puerto Rican as Bishop Coadjutor, and Bishop Swift has recently resigned his office so that Bishop Reus-Froylan can assume full responsibility as Diocesan. Bishop Swift has therefore consented to come into residence in our diocese for a one-year appointment to give us temporary relief as we continue to work on our own internal problems, and at the same time affording him a breathing space as he attempts to decide what will be the next step in his own ministry.

Bishop Swift will not have administrative responsibilities in the diocese, but will assist with Confirmations, Ordinations, and other such functions as well as with certain diocesan, parochial and community occasions where the presence of a Bishop is desirable and desired. I look forward very much to this association with him, and I am sure it will be of mutual value both to him and to us, and I am confident that you will welcome him as I shall on the first of August when he takes up residence here with Mrs. Swift.

This is the end of my report. A report which reflects a busy year, – almost too busy. A hard year, – almost too hard. But no busier, no harder for me than it has been for you. A year of shifting gears, of looking for road signs, of asking directions, of consulting maps. But though old, it is a dependable vehicle we have, and a magnificent journey ahead. My courage is strong, my hopes are high. How about you?

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA FOR 1964

The Annual Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is submitted herewith. A copy of the Audit prepared from the Diocesan books of account and records by Haskins & Sells is available for examination at the Church House, as are all the details pertaining to these reports.

At fiscal year end (January 8, 1965) the following results had been achieved: (a) 188 Parishes and Missions paid proportionate shares amounting to $ 803,315, (b) 47 overpaid by $16,814, and (c) 38 still owed $23,089. Subsequent to closing date we have received an additional $11,962 attributable to fiscal 1964.

The amount of $400,000 pledged to the Executive Council has been paid in full. Subsequent to year end an additional $4,724 was sent to the Executive Council, maintaining our half and half sharing on Missionary receipts.

Advances made from the Unallocated Missionary Suspense Fund in previous years were repaid as follows: Epiphany, Royersford - $3,000; Good Shepherd, Hilltown - $3,000; St. Cyril, Coatesville - $20; St. Dunstan, Blue Bell - $1,000; St. Francis, Williston - $3,000; St. James, Green Ridge - $1,718; St. John, Compass - $ 3,000; St. John, Concord - $1,000; Trinity, Gulph Mills - $1,800. As a result of these repayments, these funds became available for further Missionary work in the Diocese. Recording of their repayment is intended to encourage similar action as well as to register appreciation to those involved.

During 1964 $6,349 was collected on outstanding pledges and gifts to the "old" Diocesan Campaign for Capital Funds. Of this amount $2,540 was sent to the Philadelphia Divinity School and $3,809 was made available for other use within the Diocese. Also, during the year the Diocese embarked on the Diocesan Campaign for All Saints' Hospital and the Episcopal Church Center. At year end significant progress was reported toward the goal of $1,500,000.

Progress continued in the direction of simplifying the flow of work in the Treasurer's Office, although it seemed to many that the progress was neither real nor apparent. At this writing it can be said that the bulk of the work is behind us and we anticipate "better reports and greater efficiency with equal control and minimal expense" in the very near future. All of this work has taxed the personnel in the department, and they have been called upon to exert extra effort throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES L. RITCHIE, JR., Treasurer

JOHN W. THORN, Assistant Treasurer

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE TO THE 1965 DIOCESAN CONVENTION

At the stated meeting of the Standing Committee held on May 26, 1964, the Committee received the report of the Secretary of the Convention that the Convention had elected to the Standing Committee The Rev. Tom T. Edwards, Ph.D., and C. Jared Ingersoll for a term of five years expiring in May 1969.

The Reverend James R. MacColl, D.D., was elected President of the Standing Committee, and Townsend Munson was elected Secretary.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Committee on the Episcopate: Dr. McKean

Budget Committee: Mr. Wheeler, Chairman;
Father Anderson and Mr. Simons

Due to the retirement of the Reverend Richard T. Lyford, D.D., at the September meeting, The Reverend Ernest A. Harding, D.D., was elected to serve as a member of the Standing Committee until the next annual Convention.

The service of Installation of Bishop DeWitt was held October 31, 1964, at the Church of the Advocate, with Dr. Harding in charge of the arrangements by the direction of the Committee.

Since the 1964 Diocesan Convention, the applications of 11 Candidates for Holy Orders, 4 applications for ordination to the Diaconate, and 9 applications for ordination to the Priesthood have been approved.

During the year, there were many occasions when the Committee, at the request of the Bishop, met with him to act as a Council of Advice with particular reference to the problem of civil rights. The issues in the Girard College case were of continuing concern.

Without a Coadjutor or Suffragan, the Bishop bore the full weight of the many duties of his office, and in April 1965 arrangements were completed for Bishop Swift, formerly Bishop of Puerto Rico, to join the Diocese as Assistant to the Bishop.

During the course of the year, there were several meetings with the Bishop to discuss diocesan organization; and, at the January 1965 meeting, the Reverend Layton Zimmer was appointed as Special Consultant to the Bishop on Racial Tensions.

The Bishop discussed with the Committee the question of Perpetual Deacons. With 29 Perpetual Deacons in the diocese and 6 in process, it was decided there should be a moratorium on Candidates for the Perpetual Diaconate, in that applications would be closed until further order.

The year has been a difficult one because of the crosscurrents of feelings in diocese with regard to the official position on the civil rights issues in the Girard College case. The Standing Committee, as the Council of Advice to the Bishop as provided by the Canons of the Church, has lent every effort to ease the burden and to aid the Bishop in the discharge of the duties of his office.

Respectfully submitted,
TOWNSEND MUNSON
Secretary

APPENDIX G–1

BISHOP'S COMMITTEE ON CLERGY SALARIES

The 1964 Convention of the Diocese adopted a resolution introduced by the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach "that the Convention recommend to the Executive Council that the minimum salary for the clergy in the Diocese of Pennsylvania should be at least $5,000 a year for missions and parishes alike." A preliminary study by Archdeacon McCarty which was submitted to the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions revealed that approximately 80 of the 219 parochial and mission clergy (or about 36½%) were receiving less than the proposed minimum and in the light of this, the Commission requested the Bishop to appoint a special committee to study the salary structure of the clergy of the diocese in comparison to that of other commensurate service professions such as the teaching professions with the following specific goals in mind:

"1. To develop a diocesan policy concerning clergy salaries which would:

   a. Bring clergy salaries into line with those being paid in commensurate professions.

   b. Allow for incentive increases in remuneration based on such factors as ability, years of service, etc.

   c. Permit future changes in salary structure to allow for changes in the cost of living.

"2. To devise ways and means of bringing effective persuasion to bear upon the parishes of the diocese to conform their practices to the diocesan policy, including such changes in the canons as might be necessary to make it possible for impecunious parishes to receive diocesan assistance as aided parishes."

The Executive Council of the Diocese gave its unanimous approval to the request of the Commission on Salaries and Pensions. The Diocesan Committee on Research and Planning, of which Mr. Sydney L.W. Lea is the chairman, was asked to do a statistical study of the current situation, and the Bishop appointed a special committee on clergy salaries.

Mr. Lea's committee prepared and mailed to all clergy canonically resident in the diocese a questionnaire designed to elicit the facts and also their feelings and opinions. Of the 372 clergy who received the questionnaire, a number of whom are not physically living and working in the diocese, such as those in the armed forces, and some of whom are retired, over 300 replied, revealing the concern over this issue on the part of the clergy. Of this group, 50% felt their salaries to be inadequate or barely adequate. Of the active clergy, 91% favored a strongly enforced minimum salary scale for the entire diocese. Almost one quarter of the clergy currently are receiving less in remuneration than the starting salaries for school teachers, college chaplains, and college professors of equivalent education in the school districts and institutions of higher learning which were surveyed in this area. About half the clergy are receiving less than what the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics considers an adequate income for a "city worker's" family of four consisting of parents and two children.

The most variable single area discovered was in the matter of reimbursement of a clergyman for his out-of-pocket costs for automobile and other travel expenses incurred in the course of the performance of his professional duties. The clergy should be reimbursed for all such expenses incurred in the discharge of both parish and diocesan obligations. It should be manifestly clear that when a parish fails to reimburse its clergy adequately for professional travel expenses, this is tantamount to reaching into the clergyman's pocket and assessing him involuntarily for a normal part of the operating budget of the parish.

In addition to the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions, particularly the Rev. Dr. Stanley West, D.D., Chairman, and to Archdeacon McCarty and Mr. Sydney L.W. Lea's committee on Research and Planning, all of whom have done invaluable and vital preliminary work and research, we are also indebted especially to the Rev. William E. Blewett, Ph.D., Director of the Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions, for his survey of current salary scales being paid to chaplains and teaching staffs in colleges and universities in this area, and to the Rev. John A. Schultz, rector of Trinity Memorial Church, Ambler, who has given many hours of service as a concerned priest and research consultant. Robert C. Lea, Jr., Esq., Mr. John Maus and the Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, S.T.D. members of the committee, have been of particular help in gathering for us federal income tax data and information concerning salary scales for public school teachers.

One thing is very clear, and that is that the salary scale for clergy in this diocese is distinctly lower than that being paid to those of equivalent education in commensurate professions in this area.

It should be remembered that an Episcopal clergyman normally has at least three years of postgraduate education, which is the equivalent of a doctorate in most other professions. If you translate the salary of a public school teacher with doctor's degree from a nine month year to an adjusted salary for an eleven month year, then the starting salary, exclusive of pensions and other fringe benefits, for a teacher with the equivalent of three years of postgraduate education would be around $7,000 to $7,200 in the Greater Philadelphia area. Campus ministry personnel (chaplains in colleges and universities, etc.) with no previous experience start at a cash salary of $4,800 plus a housing equivalent of $1,500, or a total of $6,300 minimum, which for an eleven month year would equal $7,400; and a university campus ministry starting with 3 to 5 years pastoral experience would receive a starting salary of $8,000 for a nine month year, with increments of $11,200 after ten years. Even a lowly college instructor still working on his Ph.D. starts at between $6,500 and $7,600 for a nine month year, which is the equivalent of $8,000 to $9,300 for an eleven month year. Professors start at about $8,700 and range up to $17,000 on a basis of length of service and degree of responsibility, with no adjustment from a nine to an eleven month year. In both the school and college situations, annual increments for length of service average from $200 to $600 per year over and above the starting salaries, so that a public school teacher with three years of postgraduate education can look forward in most of our school districts at the present time to a probable salary at the end of fifteen years of at least $9,000 to $10,500, which would equal about $11,000 to $13,000 if adjusted to an eleven month year. It should be remembered that pension, free tuition for children, and other fringe benefits exist in many of these teaching situations.

In the light of all this data, this committee is unanimous in recommending, subject to the approval of the Convention, several proposals concerning clergy salaries, each of which will be presented and voted upon separately. We propose that there shall be established in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, for all priests engaged in the full time ministry, in the employ of the diocese, its parishes or its missions:

1. A minimum base cash salary of no less than $5,000. The additional cost of this in the diocesan budget for salaries and pension premiums for rectors of aided parishes and vicars of missions would be about $22,774.

2. The free use of an apartment or rectory, together with the normal and necessary expenses of maintenance, taxes, heat, gas, water and electricity; or else, in lieu thereof, the sum of $2,250 in cash as a rental allowance. In either case, at least one telephone shall be provided for professional use. The additional cost of this rental allowance in the diocesan budget would be $1,200.

3. An allowance for service in the ministry of a minimum increment of $100 per year for ten years beginning with the first year following a man's ordination to the priesthood. The additional cost of this in the diocesan budget would be about $18,103, including additional pension premiums.

4. Following the tenth year in the priesthood, a service increment of $100 for every five additional years in the ministry. The additional cost of this in the diocesan budget would be $3,186, including additional pension premiums.

5. Although not a part of salary, in order to equalize allowances for transportation, we move that for all clergy resident in the diocese who are actively engaged in the ministry of the church, there shall be provided an automobile, its maintenance, and all professional operating expenses, plus reimbursement for tolls and parking fees incurred in the exercise of professional duties, or else an allowance in lieu thereof of 10¢ a mile for the first 15,000 miles, and 8¢ a mile thereafter for professional use of the clergyman's car. Provision shall be made for reimbursement of the clergy for the use of public transportation where this is necessary. This is estimated to place an additional cost on the diocesan budget of about $4,000.

6. We also move passage of a resolution urging all parishes, aided parishes and missions of the diocese to give annual consideration to salary increments and bonuses for effective work and degree of responsibility, to be awarded to their clergy over and above the minimum adopted by the Convention. The suggested minimums are to be considered as minimums only and not as ceilings on the remuneration of the clergy. We also urge that all clergy should be reimbursed for professional expenses such as the entertainment of parishioners and prospective parishioners, or of students in the case of a ministry to a university or college campus.

7. We recommend that a continuing committee be appointed to be charged with the responsibility of studying all variables affecting fair and equitable remuneration of clergy, the standards of remuneration in commensurate professions, together with the duty of reporting any recommended changes in the diocesan salary scale to the Annual Convention of the Diocese from year to year.

8. We further recommend that a committee be established to conduct with the assistance of the Diocesan Committee on Research and Planning a survey on the use of clergy time, and to develop criteria for the evaluation of the effectiveness of a clergyman's work with a view to assisting the clergy in judging their own ministry, and to helping vestries in assessing the work of their own rectors, vicars or curates.

9. We further recommend that a study be made by the Research and Planning Committee of conditions surrounding the employment and pensioning of full time lay Church employees, such as secretaries, bookkeepers, sextons, etc., and that a confidential report be made to the rectors, vicars and vestries of parishes and missions as soon as possible for their guidance in determining fair and adequate compensation for Church employees engaged in these fields of work.

It should be noted that in our proposals there is no provision for dependency benefits. It had been suggested originally that there should be a base salary of only $4,500 ($4,000 for single men) with dependency benefits for children and and older adults such as aged parents. It was the unanimous feeling of the committee that this is poor business practice, smacks of the "welfare state", and unfairly penalizes the unmarried or childless man. We felt, therefore, that a higher minimum for all, which would include an average amount for dependency benefits, would be a more equitable way of dealing with the problem.

We realize that the proposed salary scale will require an increased sense of stewardship on the part of all of our parishes and missions if it is to be carried out successfully. This committee was asked to develop a proposed diocesan policy which would bring clergy salaries into line with those being paid in commensurate service professions. We would like to stress our feeling that this minimum proposed salary schedule is fair, that it is realistic, and that if we step forward in faith, the diocese should be able to meet it.

CHANCELLOR PRAISES AIDES

The Chancellor wishes to acknowledge with gratitude the able services of the Vice-Chancellors John Butterworth and Harry C. Barbin during the year which has just ended. The Vice-Chancellors and the Chancellor are grateful for the opportunities which they have had to be of some assistance to Bishop De Witt and the members of the Clergy and Laity who are charged with the affairs of the Diocese.

APPENDIX G–3
THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

The Foundation, as designated Trustee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, continues to grow in its usefulness as seen in the increase of the Diocesan, Parish and Organizational Funds which it manages, from 237 funds in March of 1964 to 250 at the end of the year. During this period, the total amount of money placed with the Foundation by these Funds increased from $9,783,000 to $10,339,000; and the market value of the securities in which this money has been invested by The Foundation increased from approximately $13,000,000 to over $14,000,000.

In addition to managing the investments for these 250 Funds, The Church Foundation, as trustee, held title to 25 diocesan mission properties as well as to The Church House, the Diocesan Conference Center, 68 parish churches and 8 other properties. The Foundation is glad to be of every possible help throughout the diocese in the handling of real estate and building projects.

The Church Foundation not only supervises the insurance on the properties which it holds as trustee, but, working with the Church Fire Insurance Corporation, is delighted to be of assistance to any organization in the diocese in handling its insurance problems in the most efficient and economical fashion.

These fields – the management of investments and assistance in handling real estate and insurance for the diocese, churches, and church organizations – are the principal concerns of The Church Foundation. Its Board of Directors does not merely supervise the work of The Foundation but personally devotes a large amount of time to active participation in its affairs.

The office of The Foundation is in the Provident Trust Building, at 17th and Chestnut Streets, where Mr. A. Mitchell Shumate, Executive Vice President of The Foundation, and his assistant, Miss Helen Niethammer, carry out their responsibilities with the greatest efficiency. The Provident National Bank is the fiscal agent of The Foundation, and, as such, has custody of The Foundation's records. The firm of Haskins & Sells, certified public accountants, are retained by the Board of Directors as independent auditors of The Foundation's books.

The Church Foundation looks forward to continued growth and to being of greater and greater service to parishes and church organizations within the diocese, which have any problems falling within the areas of The Foundation's activities.

The members of the Board of Directors of The Foundation and its staff continue to welcome inquiries from interested organizations as to its facilities.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ GORDON CROUTER,
Board Member

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The Board has held three meetings during the Convention year. The Rev. Francis P. Davis was elected chairman of the Board and the Rev. T. Gordon Ott, S.T.D., was elected secretary.

Regular examinations were held on the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Thanksgiving week and on the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday following Easter. On several occasions special examinations were given in the Bible to Postulants prior to recommending them as Candidates for Holy Orders. Recommendations for dispensation from Greek for two candidates were made to the Bishop.

The following have been recommended as Candidates during the Convention year:

Barton Douglas Berry, Jr.
Peter Evans Camp
Michael Jack Campbell
John Frain Hoover
Frank Noll Kieser
Albert LeRoy Mahan, Jr.
Charles Thurston Mason, Jr.
Richard A. Miller
Henry John Pease
Michael Joseph Shank
Lloyd Henry Winter, II
Ray Woods

The following has been recommended as a Candidate for the Perpetual Diaconate:

William J. Davies

The following have been recommended for ordination to Holy Orders:

Floyd A. Adams, Jr.
John Douglas Clark
Walter Fred Hartt
Ledyard H. Heckscher
David Wesley Hyatt
Harry Ifill Lauer
Laurence C. Maud
Howard Samuel Meeks
John Arthur Phillips
Joseph T. Webb

The following has been recommended for ordination to the Perpetual Diaconate:

John Eugene Campbell

Six names were removed from the list of Postulants during the year and one from the list of Candidates.

The Board offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the appropriation of $150.00 for expenses required in Board business be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS P. DAVIS, Chairman

Attest: T. GORDON OTT, Secretary

PAROCHIAL HISTORY COMMITTEE

The Parochial History Committee is charged with gathering together pamphlets, histories, and other papers and clippings of interesting events of the several parishes and missions of the diocese. These are filed in containers in a room on the fourth floor of the Church House. We depend upon the cooperation of the parishes in sending us material of interest. These records are of course available to those who are searching for information about the past history of their parish. We also keep a card index of dates and important events of parishes, and history of clergy of the diocese.

Every parish should have a person, interested in history, whose duty it would be to keep a record of important happenings. A loose leaf scrap book is an excellent place to file clippings and pictures, which will prove of great interest in years to come, or when the time comes to write a history of the parish.

If you have recently celebrated an anniversary, please send us pamphlets or other historical sketches which were published.

We are a great historic diocese, and documents, pictures and clippings of the past become more valuable each year. We make a plea for your interest in using our depository for the storing of such material, and for safety in its preservation.

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

The Cathedral Chapter during the past months continued the orderly placement of two various funds with the Cathedral Foundation. The transaction is now complete.

During the year the Lee Committee appointed by the late Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, D.D., continued the consideration of the Cathedral Foundation in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and at the last meeting of the Chapter which was held on 15 March, 1965, Bishop DeWitt presented the Lee Report which follows herewith.

Bishop's Committee on the Cathedral Church of Christ

Referring to the discussion of the Cathedral problem at the Committee meeting November 18, 1965, it would appear that the following alternatives should now be reviewed, in the hope that some determination can be reached in a recommendation to the Bishop.

1. The Cathedral project be abandoned, with such disposition of the property and funds as might be, in the opinion of counsel, in the best interests of the diocese.
   (a) St. Mary's Mission (or church) would take over the building presently used by it.
   (b) Such funds and endowments as could be properly designated for St. Mary's would go to it.
   (c) Alternatives for the real estate:
      (1) The diocese could retain the entire tract;
      (2) The diocese could subdivide the real estate, deeding to St. Mary's an appropriate acreage and retaining the balance; or
      (3) The entire tract could be deeded to St. Mary's.
   (d) Presumably, the title "Cathedral Church of Christ, Roxborough" would no longer attach to the property and the Diocesan Convention might designate some other church as its "Cathedral".
   (e) Presumably, the present building would be treated as in 3 (a) below.

2. The Cathedral project is continued and an attempt made to carry it forward by stages that would be practicable and possible of attainment.
   (a) The Cathedral Chapter would be directed by the Convention to break the plan for the Cathedral building down into steps which could be accomplished progressively.

(b) These steps might involve the expenditure from $500. to $2,000,000. each and would mean raising of funds from time to time in order to move the program ahead.

(c) This "step by step" program could be adopted either to the presently designed Gothic building or to a more modern contemporary concept.

(d) This would be an exceedingly long-range program and would involve the expenditure of many millions of dollars over a century or two.

3. The Cathedral project be put in "deep freeze", maintaining the corporation (and/or the Chapter) for the upkeep and protection of the property which would in turn be leased by the corporation to St. Mary's Parish.

(a) In this case it would seem proper to prepare plans to adapt the present "Lady Chapel" for use as a normal proportioned church building. The height of the ceiling would be reduced and proper fenestration provided. The Chapter House would of course serve as the "Parish House".

On making a definite recommendation to the Bishop the Committee should ask to be discharged.

The Chapter at the same meeting (15 March, 1965) accepted the Report and gave its approval to the third suggested alternative and empowered the Bishop to implement the conclusions reached therein.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM N. LANIGAN
Canon Secretary-Registrar

THE CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

The Chancellor's office assisted the Bishop and Standing Committee from time to time in legal matters of importance to the diocese and The Church Foundation, together with advising the Bishop prior to judgements made in the Marriage Court.

Vice Chancellors John Butterworth, Esq. and Harry Barbin, Esq. assisted the Chancellor in much of this work. Appreciation is expressed for their help.

SUMMARY OF SALARY SCALE PROPOSED FOR PRIESTS OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ENGAGED IN A FULL TIME MINISTRY IN THIS DIOCESE

1. BASE SALARY

   a. $5,000 cash.

   b. Provision and maintenance of living accommodations plus all utilities or in lieu thereof the sum of $2,250.

2. TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

   Provision and maintenance of a car and its professional operating costs or in lieu thereof an allowance of 10¢ a mile for the first 15,000 miles of professional use per year and 8¢ a mile thereafter. All other professional transportation costs to be reimbursed.

3. SERVICE INCREMENT

   $100 per year for each of the first ten years following ordination to the priesthood, plus $100 for each fifth year thereafter.

The Bishop's Committee on Clergy Salaries was selected to include two clergymen with industrial experience in personnel work, a tax attorney, the president of a manufacturing company, the rector of a large urban parish and member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and an insurance counselor who has been a director of a surburban school board for the past ten years and a former president thereof.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS
RESOLUTION ON EXTREMISM

Be it Resolved, that the 181st Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania join with other churches, synagogues, and religious societies of the Greater Philadelphia area in an increasing concern about the divisive activities and hate-mongering by extremist groups in this area. In religious leadership's concern for the moral advancement of society, the desire for harmonious relations, brotherly love, and the furthering of democratic processes in the community, the members of this Convention, by this Resolution, express their opposition to:

(1) threats, advocacy and use of violence;

(2) false or loose accusations of persons as un-American, Communist, Fascist, etc., simply because of difference of opinion;

(3) printing and distribution of literature that relies on half-truths, innuendoes, and outright lies to generate racial, religious and class hatred;

(4) harassment of individuals by anonymous phone calls and letters, deliveries of unordered goods, filing of unwarranted complaints; and,

condemn all divisive appeals and tactics which prevent free and open public discussion of issues, call upon religious leaders of all faiths, school and civic leaders, and public officials to use every opportunity to point out the difference between honest difference of opinion and discussion and the use of tactics such as those listed above which set group against group, race against race and debase and destroy the processes of democracy.

Be it further Resolved, that all clergy, and Vestries and Bishop's Committees of Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, be urged to endorse this Resolution on this subject and to authorize the Religious Council for Equality to use their individual and corporate names in the release of a statement identical to this Resolution.

APPENDIX G–11

COMMITTEE ON ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

The Committee normally meets at the Church House on the third Tuesday of each month for mutual consultation and to transact such business as may be referred to it. The present membership of the Committee includes:

Stanhope S. Browne, Esq., secretary, the Rev. Arthur Barnhart, Harry E. Broadbent, the Rev. Robert Dubose, Jr., the Rev. Eugene Lefebvre, the Rev. Charles H. Long, Jr., chairman, the Rev. Robert MacDonald, Mrs. Charles Myers, Miss Beryl Newman, Mrs. Edward J. Parnum, Mr. Louis Marshall Ream, Mrs. C. Stanley Rogers, the Rev. John Skinner, the Rev. Walter Strickland, the Rev. Alfred Vail, the Very Rev. Robert Wainwright and Mr. Fred Witkop.

Our primary responsibility is to keep informed of the rapid and widespread developments in the 'age of ecumenicity' and to share this information with others in the diocese. Much of the work of study and education is carried out through the Department of Ecumenical Relations of the Episcopal Churchwomen under the able direction of Mrs. Edward Parnum. During the year the Bishop has also asked the Committee to make certain studies and recommendations concerning the participation of ministers of other churches in the services of this Church.

Secondly, this Committee serves as the major channel of communications between the diocese and state and metropolitan Councils of Churches. The Rev. Walter Strickland represents the diocese on the board of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, the Chairman of this Committee serves also as Vice President of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches, the Rev. Arthur Barnhart and Miss Beryl Newman are chairmen of departments of the Council, and Mr. Browne, Mr. Witkop, Mrs. Parnum, Mrs. Rogers and the Rev. Messrs., DuBose, Jr., and Vail are members of the Board of Directors. A sub-committee, under the able leadership of Harry Broadbent, directed the annual membership and finance campaign among Episcopal parishes on behalf of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches. As this report is being written, the campaign is still in progress but there is reason to hope there will be an increase both in total contributions and in the number of parishes which have become members of the Council.

A third responsibility of the Committee is to provide liaison between the diocese and representatives of other churches in the community when they are invited to attend diocesan affairs as our honored guests. Such occasions in the last year included the Memorial Service for Bishop Armstrong, the Diocesan Convention and the Service of Installation for Bishop DeWitt.

The Committee seeks also to initiate each year some form of ecumenical action in which the whole diocese is asked to share. A joint observance with a Greek Orthodox parish last spring had to be cancelled, but it did prove possible to arrange an exchange of pulpits on Sunday, January 17, among ministers in the Metropolitan area of the six denominations involved in the Consultation on Unity. More than 250 churches took part in this exchange at the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. It is hoped that the event may be repeated on an even broader scale in future years.

Finally, the individual members of the Committee participated in the work of the ecumenical movement in a variety of ways which enrich the life of our diocese. The Rev. Robert MacDonald serves the national Church as secretary of the Council on Relations with the Eastern Churches. Professor Skinner has been active in Faith and Order studies on the state level. The Rev. Walter Strickland was one of the diocesan representatives at a retreat held for Protestant clergy at the Jesuit Retreat House in Maryland. Most members of the committee have been called upon to address church groups on the subject of the ecumenical movement or to prepare informative articles for the Church News.

Nothing in this report is meant to suggest that this committee has a monopoly on ecumenical relations in our diocese! Indeed, we can all rejoice that so much else is happening, as it were spontaneously, and at every level of the Church's life, to draw us into deeper understanding, closer relationship and common action with Christian bretheren of other churches. Nearly every community has seen some unprecedented example of dialogue or public witness to unity between ourselves and the clergy and laity of the Roman Catholic Church. All sorts of new experiments are being tried, to break down prejudice or to engage in common study of differences. The Diocesan Committee on Ecumenical Relations is eager to have full reports of these experiences and will do all possible to share them with others. We are eager also to know how we can be of greater help to you in your parish and neighborhood as you seek to take your part in a movement of the Spirit of God that lays its claim upon each of us.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. LONG, JR.,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The department through its staff and members continued to serve both parishes and diocese through many programs and projects, and participated in many events on provincial and national level. Among them were:

Annual Meeting of Christian Education in Cincinnati – Theme: "How do Christians Minister Together in the World?" Leader: The Rev. Dr. Daisuke Kitagawa

Annual Provincial Conference on Christian Education – College of Preachers, Washington, D. C.

Meeting in Washington of the National Training Laboratories – pilot group (Bethel, Maine) to evaluate experience and make recommendations for such training.

Participated in the Regional Conference on Voluntary Service Projects held at the Church of the Advocate, Philadelphia.

Co-sponsored with Commission on College Work a Fall Conference for College Students – at Denbigh.

Upon the invitation of the United Presbyterian Church – worked on the first Ecumenical-Continuing Education for Young Clergy Seminar.

Workshop for Parish Librarians – sponsored by the Graduate School of Library Science of Drexel Institute and Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

The Executive Secretary served as member of:

Board and Executive Committee of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

Chairman, Department of Christian Education and Evangelism, Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

Ecumenical Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Inter-Faith Exploratory Committee on Religious Education, involving Protestants, Roman Catholics and members of Jewish faith.

Topics covered by department at its meetings:

NEW TRENDS IN PUBLIC EDUCATION – The Rev. N. Dean Evans, Ed.D., Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Delaware County.

Panel – CHURCH AND STATE – Joint Committee on Church and State of the Departments of Christian Education and Christian Social Relations.

CONFIRMATION: ITS MEANING AND PRACTICES – The Rev. John F. Hardwick and Mrs. Walter W. Miller, St. Peter's, Glenside.

* * * * * * * * * * *

The department wishes to acknowledge its indebtedness to the Rev. Messrs. Elbert K. St. Claire and Francis P. Davis, for their leadership and devotion to its life and work as officers and active participants. We are grateful that they will continue to be active participants under the chairman, the Rev. Donald L. Farrow, and Mrs. Walter W. Miller, secretary.

ADULT DIVISION. . . . . The Rev. Harry R. Johnson, Chairman

April 17–19 – Christian Life Conference for lay people – Denbigh.

AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE. . . . . The Rev. Kenneth C. Werner, Chairman

Seventy-seven parishes are paid members of the Audio-Visual Co-operative. Many new filmstrips and records have been added to the library.

Christian Youth Cinema, Inc., Glenside, continues to act as distributing agent for the handling (booking and maintenance) of our 16mm films. Costs pertaining to having C.Y.C. also handle filmstrips and slides is being considered.

Mrs. Ernest Roth took over this work upon the resignation of Mrs. Mary Branson in September.

Work on a new audio-visual catalogue continues.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION . . . . . Miss Elizabeth M. Rapley, Chairman

Five issues – MEMORANDUM FROM ROOM 30.

Because of increased pressure to supply copies for teachers, the department is securing from commercial firms the cost of printing the memo and mailing in bulk to parishes. This will be done if enough parishes subscribe for bundles.

January 29 – Mission Study Workshop, Church House, in cooperation with Episcopal Churchwomen.

April 18 – Vacation Church School Workshop, Philadelphia Divinity School.

CHURCH SCHOOL-BY-MAIL COMMITTEE. .The Rev. Joseph H. Laird, Chairman

Twelve new pupils were received into the Church School-by-Mail during 1964, while nine moved into districts with Church Schools, leaving a total of seventy-one at the end of the year.

Four parishes used our Church School-by-Mail for seven sick or handicapped children. Three outlying parishes provided workers to send and correct lessons, and to visit the families.

The pupils respond amazingly well to their lessons and the parents of the ill, retarded, and pre-school youngsters show their interest through letters and phone calls. Their missionary offering was $14.60.

Visits were made to thirty-eight families on roll, and twelve were spent in looking for new prospects. Christmas presents were provided with money given by Scholarship donors.

One hundred and eighty ($3.50) scholarships to support the work were received from Episcopal Churchwomen, Church Schools, and other organizations and individuals. The cost per child is now approximately $5.50, so it takes almost two scholarships for each child enrolled.

YOUTH DIVISION. . . . . .The Rev. Warren H. Davis, Jr., Chairman and Diocesan Advisor. As of June, 1964, the Rev. John F. Leser, appointed.

YOUTH COUNCIL

Annual Service – January 26, 1964 at Christ Chapel, Episcopal Academy. Theme: THE PECULIAR ONES - Folk songs. Preacher: The Rev. Malcolm Boyd.

Nearly a thousand jammed the Chapel - and crowds milled around outside. A great many cars were turned away at the gates.

Offering: $432.45 - contributed to the work of the Rev. Heron A. Sam, Church of England Missionary in British Guiana, South America, to enable young people to attend high school. Scholarships of $100 will provide a year's education at a church-related school.

Youth Council Weekend – September 11-13, Denbigh. Problems and concerns for study and action were discussed.

Youth Convention and Fun Day - May 23, Denbigh. Four hundred young people attended - perfect swimming weather; and a great day.

Operation Swimming Pool. Contributions for the year totaled: $648.00.

National Triennial Convocation of Episcopal Young Churchmen, August 26–September 2, Denver, Col. Four young people and the youth advisor attended. Theme: To rediscover life in Christ, and the dimensions of freedom within that life; and to discover the worldwide nature of the Community of Christ - the Church.

YOUTH COMMISSION

Youth Advisors' Workshop – March 14 - Cathedral Church of Christ.

Youth Advisors' Training Session – May 9 - St. Peter's, Glenside.

Youth Consultation – October 26-29 – Greenwich, Conn. The Rev. John F. Leser and Miss Emily L. Stanford attended as our representatives.

SUMMER YOUTH CONFERENCE COMMITTEE . . . . . .
The Rev. James A. Trimble, Chairman

The 1963 Summer Conference Reunions were held January 3 and 4, at Denbigh.

Summer Conference of 1964: Three overnight staff conferences were held in preparation for the five youth conferences.

Theme for all conferences: APOSTLESHIP

June 14-20	– 11th & 12th grades
June 21-27	– 11th & 12th grades
June 28-July 4	– 9th & 10th grades
July 5-11	– 9th & 10th grades
July 12-18	– 8th grade

(All conferences filled to capacity - waiting lists for three.)

LEADERSHIP TRAINING DIVISION . . . .
The Rev. Richard L. Bartholomew, Chairman as of June, 1964

A group of six, clergy and lay persons, completed the second phase of the Province III Training Institute and then put on their Phase III projects. A team of three put on a training session for Youth Advisors on May 9th at St. Peter's, Glenside. The second team conducted a training session for teachers of six parishes in the West Philadelphia area.

Eight clergy and lay persons registered from the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the second Province II Training Institute, Roslyn, – Richmond, Va.

APPENDIX G–14
DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

This is the year when Christian Social Relations ceased to be exclusively departmentalized in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Many of the concerns which heretofore had been largely, if not exclusively, prosecuted by the department became basic concerns of the entire diocese. Others which originated outside the membership of the department were simply delegated to the department. This marks vastly increased concern by the "gathered Church" for the "scattered Church" of the diocese as an increasingly significant leaven in the larger society in which it is set to minister.

The most notable departure in this direction was the establishment of the ministry to areas of tension. Events during the "long, hot summer" of the past year fully justified the anticipatory concern which led the department to ask for its creation, and its effectiveness on a trial basis is the reason the department asks for its continuance as an officially recognized arm of the diocese.

Illustrative of a concern which originated outside of the membership of the department was the recent venture into the area of public school education for which the department was asked for technical assistance. The complexity of the issues involved indicate that this should be an area of continued study.

With the cooperation of the Department of Christian Education, a joint or inter-departmental, church-state committee was formed to study and disseminate findings in an area which is increasingly prominent in an ecumenical age. Relationships between various religious households, between religion and public education, between church and state are all within the purview of this joint committee.

The Committee on Racial Understanding worked to implement previous convention resolutions in this area, to be informed about inter-racial tensions in the community, to further the nationwide effort for civil rights, and began to involve itself in a study of education and poverty issues which affect inter-group relations. A high point in its efforts was the Emergency Conference on Civil Rights at St. Mary's Church in Ardmore in June; one of the best attended institutes ever staffed by the department. Out of the concerns of the department through this committee two written studies have had unusually wide circulation –the Background Study on Chester, and the one on the North Philadelphia riot area which was reproduced by The Church News.

There has been an increasing demand for area meetings and for staff assistance to parish-based Christian social relations committees. This is one of the most hopeful and encouraging developments the membership sees in the life of the diocese, but it also finds it tremendously frustrating because of the inadequacies of the present staff to build on these opportunities. It has unanimously requested full-time professional staff assistance to address itself effectively to the gap in service this demand indicates.

The Division of World Relief and Inter-Church Aid continued in a more modest, and more effective, way the resettling of Cuban refugees through parishes in the diocese. It promoted support for world relief through the Presiding Bishop's Fund, and was gratified to be informed that contributions from the diocese in excess of $33,000 to this fund put it in the lead of all the dioceses of the Church. The Division also furthered the interest expressed by a previous convention in the revision of immigration legislation.

These are highlights of the department's work for the past year. Not mentioned are the continuing surveillance of previous involvements of the diocese committed to the department, nor of the sensitiveness for emerging problems about which the department should be obligated to apprize the diocese.

Although there is great satisfaction in noting the greater involvement of the Church as a whole in what are fundamentally issues of Christian social relations, it should be said that this increasing involvement bespeaks the pervasiveness, complexity, and crucial nature of the problems of the world to which we minister. Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence points not only to new opportunities, but, also, to the serious problems and unmet needs which create them.

Chairman

APPENDIX G–15

CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions is authorized by the diocese to develop and administer a program of college work and a program to further Christian work in schools at the secondary level of education. The Corporation is also providing administration and general oversight for the Voluntary Service Projects Program of the diocese. This many-faceted expression of Christian concern is guided by members of the Diocese elected to membership in the Corporation by the Convention. The work is executed by the Director, presently the Rev. William E. Blewett, Ph.D., whose devotion and talents give the Corporation cause for pride in the work being accomplished.

The college work program is carried out in a cooperative relationship with other church boards and foundations through the formal machinery of the Metropolitan Strategy Committee and also by the informal contact of those active in this ministry. Cooperation is especially strong with Baptists, Lutherans, Methodists, Presbyterians, and the United Church of Christ. Meaningful contacts have also been established with the Newman Apostolate of the Roman Catholic Church.

This report will only touch on the highlights of 1964's activities.

In April, the Rev. Edward Lee began his work as Episcopal Associate in the cooperative chaplaincy program at Temple University. His first months of service have been well received and give expectation of a fruitful ministry in the midst of this expanding multiversity. In September, under a unique cooperative program with Holy Trinity Church, West Chester, the Corporation was able to place Miss Alda Marsh at West Chester State College to give focus and leadership to the Christian community on that Campus. She has already been able to provide a nucleus for a truly cooperative Christian mission there.

The Corporation sponsored a series of conferences and meetings during the year which were not only well attended but have had continuing value. Highlights were the Faculty Conference in the spring on the theme "Law, Gospel and University"; Count-down II a conference designed especially for those attending colleges out-side the diocese and for entering freshmen (this is a jointly planned program with the Department of Christian Education); and the student conference in the fall with William Stringfellow, on the theme, "Chaos, Hypocrisy and God".

Once each year all chaplains and college workers meet with the members of Corporation in a special meeting to provide personal interpretation of the work being done by the eight full-time chaplains/workers (some supported in cooperation with other campus ministry foundations) and the twenty part-time chaplains. In 1964 the meeting was held at All Saints, Wynnewood.

Late in the year the Corporation approved an exploratory program of work with secondary school teachers, both private and public, to begin in 1965. This was one of the original purposes of the Corporation when it was founded twenty-two years ago. Initial announcements and discussions have been enthusiastically received.

At the annual meeting in May, the Corporation re-elected Mr. Hazen Hardy as president, Mr. Anthony Ridgway as secretary and Mr. Ronald J. McCarthy as treasurer. Mrs. Raymond Ballinger was elected vice-president. It was also determined to broaden the base of diocesan representation, and to this end the number of associate members was enlarged with the election of Mrs. Karl Beyer, Mrs. Thomas Harney, Mr. Henry T. Reath, Mr. John Butterworth, Dr. Digby Baltzell, Dr. Henry Wells, the Rev. Edward Harris and the Rev. Stanley Johnson.

1964 was marked by increased interest in, and support of, the program of the Corporation. This was reflected in financial support, requests for speakers, requests for consultation, and in the number of parishes seeking to minister to their own college students in a more adequate way.

The year was marked also by the loss of a long time friend and tireless supporter of the Corporation's work, Mr. Ronald J. McCarthy, who entered into "the life of perfect service".

In closing, let me point out that the diocese, through the work of the Corporation and its director, Dr. Blewett, is also providing leadership and guide lines for work in educational institutions throughout the state, the province and the wider Church.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HAZEN HARDY, JR. ESQ.,
President

APPENDIX G–16
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

The Church News. . .

Published monthly except July and August; averaging 16 pages, with 20 pages in June and 12 pages in October. Continued printing 55,500 with congregations of all but one church in diocese receiving it.

Radio & Television. . .

Greater activity and exposure than ever in these media. More acceptance of radio programs prepared by National Council. More television news coverage. including one hour-20 minute telecast of the installation of Bishop DeWitt (channel 6). . . All television channels, Movietone News and several radio stations covered Bishop DeWitt news conference at Church House on occasion of the Rev. Clayton Hewitt discontinuing hunger strike in connection with Chester civil rights disturbances.

News Releases. . .

Expanded servicing of Diocesan events, including regular program with community outlets of all media in connection with Confirmation visitations of bishops.

Stewardship. . .

Conducted six area meetings attended by clergy and responsible lay leaders representing 150 churches. . . .Planned 1965 program of "Stewardship Training Program for Vestries" to start in March and continue through the year.

Speakers' Division. . .

Compiled plan to broaden scope of and increase effectiveness in this area. Expect to put it into operation with some volunteer assistance in 1965.

Convention Exhibits. . .

A "first" here was our plan for exhibit booths at the Diocesan Convention at Valley Forge Military Academy. Twenty exhibitors, including departments and related agencies, displayed their work in hall adjoining meeting hall.

Diocesan Handbook. . .

Started work on (completed early in 1965) loose-leaf work with History of the Diocese, outline of functions of the departments, Church House personnel, Churchwomen, Denbigh, Episcopal Community Services, and Vital Statistics.

Publications. . .

Published the Journal of the Convention and the second (and improved) Directory of telephone numbers and addresses of churches, agencies, and persons likely to be sought.

Audio-Visuals. . .

Provided colored slides and commentary of General Convention; 30-minute film documentary on "Election of a Presiding Bishop", and 30-minute documentary on "Installation of a Presiding Bishop" for showing throughout the diocese.

APPENDIX G–17
DIOCESAN CONFERENCE CENTER

Denbeigh, the Conference Center, was in use on 215 days. It was used by 112 diocesan and 33 outside groups. We served 18,300 meals to 4524 guests, including 1944 overnight guests. These figures include five summer youth conferences attended by more than 400 individuals.

A women's committee, gathered late in 1963, was active throughout the year under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Thorington, providing "the women's touch," especially, flowers in season and additions to our furnishings. Fourty-four beds were improved with box-springs contributed by women's groups and individuals. Several volunteers, including Miss Carolyn Earle, Chestnut Hill; Mrs. Charles (Mary Lober) Auchincloss and Mrs. John Ullrich, Upper Darby, contributed many hours of time for Conference Center office work.

The exterior trim of the house was painted; the walls of the canteen were waterproofed; a new hot water heating system was installed in the main building; the chapel was improved, and repairs were made as necessary during the year, under the conscientious supervision of Harry Hecht, Havertown.

The Rev. Joseph H. Laird,

Chairman

APPENDIX G–18
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bimonthly except during the summer of 1964, and has performed the functions assigned to it by Canon.

The Property Department is a sub-department under Finance, which is charged with the surveillance of all physical property owned or under control of the Diocese. William F. Oberhuber was appointed as the new chairman in 1964 and renders a separate report.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the chairman, who renders a separate report.

The department notes with pleasure that all bills of the diocese and its expectation to the National Council for 1964 have been paid in full. The diocese has promised to share with the National Council on a dollar-to-dollar basis all contributions for the missionary budget of the diocese.

Thorne Sparkman,

Chairman

APPENDIX G–19
DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

On becoming Diocesan in April, 1964, Bishop DeWitt appointed the Rev. Canon Alfred Vail permanent chairman of the Department of Missions. With the concurrence of Diocesan Council, the Bishop also appointed the Ven. John McCarty as executive director of the department and chairman of the Missionary Strategy Committee, with the title of Archdeacon. Archdeacon McCarty began his work in the diocese on September 1, 1964.

In cooperation with the deans of convocations, the department continued its standing assignment of supervision of the missions and aided parishes of the diocese. Financial assistance for maintenance of church buildings, emergency needs for mission clergy and congregations, major repairs or additions, and so forth, were authorized.

During the year 1964, the Churches of St. George, Richmond, and The Holy Redeemer (Polish) were merged, with the Rev. Edward M. Bak, vicar of the latter mission, appointed to serve as vicar of joint congregation.

The Rev. David Seaboldt, former vicar of St. George's, was appointed vicar of St. Luke's, Highland Gardens, which had been in the charge of a perpetual deacon. The new vicarage at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hilltown, was completed, and plans for the building of the church at St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell, went forward. The vestry of the Church of St. John the Baptist, in September 1964, voted to institute proceedings to dissolve the corporation of the parish.

The Archdeacon has visited most of the missions of the diocese and consulted with vicars and vestries on general or specific issues and problems.

On July 15, Ronald J. McCarthy, former chairman of the Property Committee and member of the department, died after a protracted illness. At its first meeting in the fall, the department expressed by unanimous resolution its deep sense of loss and its gratitude for the many years of faithful service and fellowship given by Mr. McCarthy to the diocese and to the department.

THE REV. CANON ALFRED VAIL,

Chairman

APPENDIX G–20
DIOCESAN LIBRARY

Seventy-three new books were purchased for the Diocesan Library during 1964, at a total cost of $382.65. Twenty-three books were on Urban Study, and the balance on Bible, Biography, Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, Church, Church History, Church Unity, Creeds, Missions, Prayer and Worship, Spiritual Therapy, Philosophy, Psychology, and Theology. These were listed each month in the Church News and at the end of the year a complete list was mailed to all clergy and to the laity using the library.

Approximately 100 people used the library during the year, a few more clergy than laity. An average of 55 books were in circulation at one time.

The following magazines were provided in the news rack: The American Church News; Anglican Theological Review; Anglican World; Christian Century; Christianity and Crisis; Church and Race; The Churchman; The Church News; Cross Currents; The Ecumenical Review; The Episcopalian; Findings; The Hibbert Journal; The Historical Magazine; Journal of Religion and Health; The Living Church; and The Witness.

The library is located in the meeting room on the first floor of Church House and is open between 9:00 and 4:45 Mondays through Fridays. Books may be checked out and in at the information window or with the librarian in Room 34 on the third floor, where the card catalogue is located. The librarian will assist borrowers in any way, either in person or by telephone, and will advise whether required books are available. A mailing service is available upon the refund of postage which may be enclosed with books when returned.

THE REV. CHARLES F. EHLY,

Chairman, Board of Control

APPENDIX G–21
RESEARCH AND PLANNING

The Research and Planning Group concluded its supervisory work for the Diocesan Survey on December 31, 1964, with the end of the parish phase of the Survey. The General Division of Research and Field Study of the Executive (National) Council reports to the Bishop and to the clergy of the diocese, and makes its recommendations for future planning and programming in the Spring of 1965.

At the request of Bishop DeWitt, the Executive Committee of the Research and Planning Group: Sydney L. W. Lea, chairman; Robert C. Allen and David A. West, vice-chairmen; the Rev. John A. Schultz, research consultant; and the Ven. John D. McCarty, executive secretary, will continue to function as a data gathering and general research committee. It will assist all departments and committees of the diocese, but it will not be a policy making body.

The first assignment for the group in its new capacity is the gathering of data for a Clergy Salary Survey for the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions. This study is being made to implement the resolution of Convention that the minimum clergy salary in the Diocese be $5,000 a year.

SYDNEY L. W. LEA,
Chairman

APPENDIX G–22
COMMISSION ON MUSIC

The Commission on Music, in its third consecutive year of active service to the diocese, promoted lectures and special services during the winters of 1964 and 1965, and has met monthly to plan for these events. Since January 1st, 1964, these included:

April 11 – Dr. Gerald Knight, Director, Royal School of Church Music, England, at the Divinity School. More than one hundred clergy, organists, and other lay persons were in attendance.

April 19 – A Junior Choir Festival of Evensong and special music at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. Robert M. Smart, organist at Trinity Church, Swarthmore, directed; Henry Cook, of St. Paul's Church, was organist; over 650 youngsters from 34 parishes participated.

The following activities are in progress or anticipated at moment of writing:

A "School of Church Music" on three Saturdays in February, 1965, at the Divinity School features distinguished authorities in their fields – Dr. Leo Sowerby, composer, and director of the College of Church Musicians, National Cathedral, Washington, D.C.; the Rev. Canon Edward N. West, D.D., Canon Sacrist of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York; and Alec Wyton, master of the choristers and organist at the Cathedral in New York.

Certain commission members also addressed the School: Eugene Roan, organist, St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh (organ repertory); Newell Robinson, of the Divinity School (hymnology); and Norman Sill, organist, St. Clement's Church (plainchant).

On May 2, Robert Smart will again direct the junior choir festival at the Church of the Advocate, North Philadelphia. The participation of 35 parishes and nearly 800 young people is expected. Other projects such as an anthem list, a senior choir festival, and the formation of a diocesan choir are under discussion.

Ruth Flower and A. Eric Martin served as registrars for the lectures. All Commission members directed the various regional rehearsals for the junior choir festival. The Rev. Robert C. Forster is recording secretary, and Ernest Willoughby is secretary (treasurer).

For the use of facilities for its activities, the commission gratefully acknowledges the cooperation of the Very Rev. Edward G. Harris, the Rev. Tom T. Edwards, and the Rev. Paul M. Washington.

HARRY WILKINSON,
Chairman

APPENDIX G–23

COMMISSION ON RECTORS' SALARIES AND PENSIONS

1. The Commission has during the year fulfilled its responsibility to assure that the Pension Premiums of the Clergy are kept paid up. This involves, in a few instances, where arrearages have accumulated for six months or more, to pay them from the reserve funds of the commission. No assessments were requested for 1963 or 1964 for this purpose.

Payments and loans were made in 1964 as follows:

For the Rev. Wm. V. Ischie, Jr. Rector, Christ Church, Franklinville	$ 107.64
For the Rev. Wm. J. Fischler, Pension and Salary arrearages Curate, Christ Church, Franklinville	1,138.43
For the Rev. Bruce Williamson Rector, St. Mary's Church, 1817 Bainbridge St.	733.82
For the Rev. Bruce Williamson Supply, Church of the Crucifixion, 8th & Bainbridge Sts. (Arrears from 1959–1963)	1,094.47
For the Rev. Edward C. McCoy Rector, St. Elisabeth's Church, 16th & Mifflin Sts.	369.44
Total
Loan to Atonement Church, Morton For Salary, at request of the Bishop, to be repaid during 1965	$2,000.00

2. With reference to the resolution, adopted by the 1964 Diocesan Convention, to suggest ways and means by which the minimum salaries of the clergy might be raised to $5000, and referred to this commission, has been placed in the hands of the Diocesan Research and Planning Group, Sidney L. W. Lea, chairman, and of a Special Committee on diocesan salaries, the Rev. Wm. H. Jefferys, chairman. We understand the latter committee plans to present its report at this convention.

3. As of May 1, the Church Pension Fund plans to increase the minimum annual pensions of the clergy from $1800. to $2100; and of the widows, from $1200. to $1400. The orphans' allowances will be increased from $360 to $420, up to age 7

from $480 to $560 ages 7 to 14
from $600 to $700 ages 14 to 21

4. On December 31, there were 141 recipients of grants from Church Pension Fund in our Diocese: 55 retired clergy; 2 disabled clergy; 72 widows, and 12 orphans. These grants amounted to a total of $225,000. in 1964

APPENDIX G–24

REPORT BY CHARLES L. RITCHIE, JR.
ON DIOCESAN CAMPAIGN
TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION, MAY, 1965

At the Diocesan Convention of 1964, authorization was given for a fund-raising campaign to raise $1,250,000 for All Saints' Hospital for the construction of a new wing for patients. To this was added the amount of approximately $175,000 for the discharge of the obligation of this diocese for the Episcopal Church Center in New York. In order to provide for the expenses of conducting the campaign, the goal was announced at $1,500,000.

The campaign committee is able, at this point, to tell you that to date the amount assured is $1,171,000. Of this amount $722,500 has been received in cash and pledges and assurances from advance gift solicitation, $31,000 from parish solicitation, and $416,667 in a grant given from Hill-Burton funds.

Our advance gift solicitation has been a very happy experience. We have had, in all, an organization of 180 leaders, captains, and solicitors who have done a fine job of soliciting the large advance gift list which we compiled. This work is still going on, but should, we believe, be completed by mid-June. We think that when all of our advance gift cards are reported this part of the campaign will show a total of $900,000. This figure is, of course, a projection, but it is based on information we believe to be reliable and we think it is realistic.

We have asked all parishes and missions in the diocese to participate in the campaign in whatever manner they thought best, but with the thought in mind that all Episcopalians should have the opportunity to participate in the success of the total campaign. A four-page mailing piece on All Saints' Hospital, a two-page piece on the Episcopal Church Center, collection envelopes and pledge cards have been offered to all churches. We have received replies from 25 parishes, and some of those who have ordered materials for solicitation in the parish have written us that they will include a contribution to the campaign in their forthcoming budget. Pledges and contributions from 9 parishes to date total $31,000 and we feel sure that by the time all are heard from the amount needed to achieve the goal of $1,500,000 will be received.

We have received assurances from the proper authorities that federal funds, granted under the Hill-Burton Act and administered by the State of Pennsylvania will be forthcoming. We are counting on one-third of our funds coming from this source – that is, one-third of the $1,250,000 which we are authorized to raise for All Saints' Hospital. This amounts to $416,667. We are certainly most grateful for this wonderful assistance.

We expect to reach our dollar goal. It will not be reached automatically, of course, but only through the earnest effort of all Episcopalians. We have had this sort of good response from so many people so far, that I am sure the same enthusiasm can be expected throughout the Diocese.

One goal in this campaign has been raising money for a worthwhile cause. It has become increasingly apparent, however, that the importance of the campaign to the diocese goes far beyond dollars. This is a large diocese – a community of 83,000 communicants and half again as many baptized members – in terms of population it ranks just under Los Angeles and along with New York and Massachusetts. If the campaign was to succeed we had to get out into the far reaches of the diocese and tell the story. We have tried to do this and although I am sure we have not done more than scratch the surface we have found a reservoir of goodwill and cooperation almost everywhere – from many quarters previously not known to us we received help and encouragement; and, little by little, realization of some of our diocesan-wide needs has been more fully achieved in areas which have not been accustomed always to thinking in terms of the greater community of our Church. We have had a good story to tell – a cause in All Saints' Hospital which represents a compelling and universal need. We also have a Bishop who had suddenly inherited a vast responsibility and who soon found many rapidly changing situations which demanded action. As treasurer of the diocese I have been long aware of the relatively small amount of support this diocese receives form its parishes and missions on a per-capita basis – let me relate a few statistics!

In 1965 we are anticipating Missionary receipts of $880,000 and $143,000 net of other income for assessments – a total of $1,023,000 or $12.30 per communicant. If we were to raise the level of pledges only to the per capita average of Episcopalian pledges in all diocese of this country we would add some three quarter of a million dollars income throughout the diocese.

I refer to all this because those of us who have been responsible for the success of this campaign will not consider it successful if all it does is raise $1,500,000 – if it is truly successful this campaign will have proven to ourselves what we can do when we have a program worth doing. To be truly successful this campaign must have created a momentum of diocesan community interest and participation which will effectively raise the entire level of giving to and through the parishes and missions. There is great interest throughout the diocese and an eagerness to be involved; I am certain the necessary support for carrying out the Church's mission will be forthcoming for this great diocese.

Tangible evidence of the progress made will be given on May 13th when Bishop DeWitt will break ground for the new wing of All Saints' Hospital.

I want to thank the entire campaign organizations; our honorary chairman, who I am sure has learned a new meaning of the word honorary, the workers on the campaign for all they have done, the clergy for their fine cooperation, the members of the staff of Church House for their cheerful acceptance of the interruptions to their jobs that the campaign has made, to John Begien and his helpers who have been professionally indispensible, and I feel I should say a special word of thanks to Ned Wood and Schuyler Lippincott for the uncounted hours they have given in conducting the campaign.

REPORT OF THE PROPERTY COMMITTEE

The Bishop reported the appointment of Mr. William T. Oberhuber as Chairman of the Department to be assisted by the Rev. Wallace B. Houston, Jr. as a part time paid executive. (The salary of Mr. Houston to be paid out of the Bishop's Fund.)

Mr. Ronald J. McCarthy, deceased, was fondly remembered for his contributions in the past as Chairman of the Committee.

APPENDIX G–26

CONVENTION REPORT OF MRS. SITER OWEN FOR DIOCESAN COMMITTEEE ON M. R. I.

In last year's convention of the diocese the following resolution was adopted:

Be it resolved that the 180th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania officially acknowledge receipt of the document "Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ," and express its intention of accepting its full share of responsibility for the carrying out of the program.

To date there has been offered no specific "How to" program for Mutual Responsibility either at the national or diocesan level – a fact of which you are well aware. Perhaps even impatiently aware. This report will attempt to bring you up to date on the present position of the studies that the Mutual Responsibility document involves.

Though the document, now familiarly referred to as MRI, made its origin at the Angelican Congress at Toronto in the summer of 1963, it was not formally adopted by our Church until General Convention met in October, 1964. Bishop DeWitt, in accordance with your above resolution and the action of General Convention, appointed, in February of this year, a committee to explore the implications of the Mutual Responsibility document for the life and work of this diocese.

This committee met for the first time at an all day session on April 3rd just past and again as recently as April 24th. The Committee was most fortunate in having Bishop Stephen F. Bayne, Jr. present at its inaugural session, since Bishop Bayne was not only on the Toronto drafting committee of the document which bears this indigestible title, but is for the time being its chief interpreter. To those who complain about the title, Bishop Bayne explains that it was purposely left that way, so that it would require constant and continuing interpretation by all who would be involved in the concept it contains. A catchy, or, as he called it "jazzy", title would have diminished the concept to the size of a campaign or program, or fund-raising gimmick for missions. All three of these things – campaign, or program, or fund-raising appeal, – are precisely what Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ is NOT.

We, the Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in the Anglican Communion, are only a very small member of the Body of Christ, perhaps not as big as a little finger. But when a tight string or band cuts off the circulation in a finger it first turns cold, then numb, – and finally becomes diseased and will sicken the whole body unless it is severed and discarded. The only way for even a finger to remain as part of a living body is for free and continuous circulation to be shared and maintained by the whole.

Now in our diocese, as indeed throughout the Church in the world, it has become more and more evident that circulation is exceedingly poor, though the world's circulation and blood pressure has markedly risen. Few churches feel in the least a part of the others, or consciously share the hurt or the health of others. And yet we have been warned repeatedly that "the church that lives to itself will die by itself."

To change the metaphor: – It has become apparent in these One World global jet days that the Church needs re-tooling. It is somewhat as though we have been trying to tune the engines of a Douglas DC-8 with the tools of a Victorian village blacksmith.

Re-tooling necessitates carefully engineered planning and design. It must first be determined what functions the tools are to perform, and then methods and instructions must be devised for their use. (Implementation is the fitting and fashionable word, I believe.)

The MRI document is not very long, as you know, but it is very large. Bishop Bayne, after taking the committee on a rocket tour of the Anglican Communion, gave us three lift-off points for our consideration.

First, that MRI is a reassertion that mission begins with God, and is always a response to something God has already initiated. It is He who acts in history, and the Church must do its best to identify and conform itself to what He is in fact accomplishing. "It is very much easier," said Bishop Bayne, to think that the Church's mission is in our control, – that its future, its work, its place in society is for ourselves to determine. Periodically, because we get trapped in this rather egotistic attitude toward church, we lose the Church, and it ceases to be the Church and becomes a club of Episcopalians. Then we are dissatisfied with it, because it doesn't have the greatness and saving power that we long to see in the Church, and it does not speak of God, it speaks of ourselves and we get bored with it.

The second important element called for in the document is unity. At present the only bond of unity in the Anglican Communion is expressed sacramentally, in Baptism and Holy Communion, – though formerly there were other strong unities, of culture, civic community and common language.

Third, is the element of urgency that evoked the drafting of the document in the first place. Mutual Responsibility is a reminder that God's gifts are not given to be deposited safely somewhere, but that we are to use them or we will lose them.

In sum, the MRI document is a broad call for a review of our actions, structure and programs in the light of our new understanding.

Now you can see that direct application of these great thoughts to our diocesan life and structure is not easily formulated. In fact the committee has taken some comfort in the knowledge that the National MRI Committee is moving at approximately the same pace as we. We have a link with the National Committee in the person of Fr. Paul Washington, who reports that at their second and most recent three-day meeting which began on Easter Monday, a new interpretation of the document, suited to a layman's view, was undertaken. This is soon to be released, I am told, for the benefit of Diocesan Conventions other than this one. The remainder of the National Committee's time was spent attempting to define the role of the MRI Executive Officer called for by General Convention and not yet appointed. (My personal hope is that a junior edition of this definition will soon be available for diocesan use.)

Well, the diocesan committee, too, has labored valiantly to propose some specific plans for your consideration, but at best they can only be described as embryonic, and to date they are limited in scope to the Philadelphia metropolitan area. And it should be said here, and with great emphasis, that this committee considers itself, and is considered by the Bishop to be purely an advisory group, without authority or power of any kind; and that whatever proposals emerge from its deliberations, whether for study or action, will be referred to normal diocesan channels.

While appreciating the call of the MRI document to broader relationships beyond diocesan boundaries, the committee recognized that we must always begin where we are. We envisaged the total image of the mission of the Church as ever broadening concentric circles, beginning with the individual in the parish, moving out to the diocese and so on into the larger world.

We attempted to define the function of the parish and the diocesan function, – and their relation to each other. The parish we described as a laboratory for life, in relationship to other individuals and God. . . as a person-to-person ministry. The diocesan function we saw as a support of the parish function; as a laboratory for community relationships and the impact of social institutions on the individual; and additionally, we saw the diocese as an instrument for over-all mission cohesiveness.

A very tentative and preliminary proposal for a two-year plan of action and study is emerging, whose objective is a deeper understanding of and more effective action in the metropolitan mission. Bishop De Witt pointed out in his address to convention last year that the primary call of the Mutual Responsibility document for "a radical study by every church of its own obedience to mission has already been well begun by the Self-Study of the Diocese, chaired by Mr. Sydney Lea. Futhermore, a diocesan Committee on Organization and Structure is also in full swing under Dr. Arnold Purdie's direction. The question now arises: have we done enough thinking, or are we ready for any new action?

The proposed Two-Year Plan should tie in with the two just mentioned studies and would comprise a series of logical, inter-related action and study suggestions to cover the major diocesan functions, and to provide a frame-work in which all the various actions of the parishes and diocese could be seen as part of the total mission of the Church. While the study and action programs would start with our life together as a diocese, they should and must eventually extend into the wider concentric circle of relationship – that of the diocese to the national church and the Anglican Communion, as well as into our relationships with other denominations and communions.

Even before the drafting of the Mutual Responsibility document, some so-called "Companion-Dioceses" had been established, and others are being developed. Within the diocese also there have been established some companion relationships among the parishes. The committee suggests that those parishes which have already established both intra-and extra-diocesan ties with some other parish or project, record the same in the diocesan office. This would be most helpful, and perhaps obviate some painful crossed wires and short-circuits.

With respect to an anticipated Companion-Diocese relationship for Pennsylvania, it should be noted from the experience of other such attempts, that unless the relationship is undertaken in depth, it has little value, becomes just another mission gimmick, and is perfunctory. Such a relationship should be developed with regard not only to spiritual affiliation, but with a realistic mutuality, based on social, educational and economic understanding. Such understanding can not be accomplished by a committee meeting, or a token exchange of clergy and lay persons. Mutuality must in this case involve the concern of many. It requires the indoctrination of the lay by the clergy, and the clergy by the lay. Mutual responsibility does not recognize a giver or a receiver. It was therefore in his wisdom that the Bishop enlisted in his committee a great diversity of experts: in education, sociology, political economy, merchandising, financing, business organization and theology, as well as some of those unclassified persons called women. All these fields are represented on the committee. The fully committed efforts and expertise of the members are at the service of the Bishop and the diocese, and are ready to explore the possibilities involved in a companion-diocese relationship. But, as has been said, unless mutuality is established in depth it will be as the seed which is sown on a rock, received with joy, and as soon as it is sprung up, withers away, because it lacks moisture. Let us prepare good ground.

M. R. I. – ADDITIONAL REMARKS

There is one other word that I would say to you, from personal observation, and not on behalf of the committee I represent. I don't know just who else would say this to you. I am neither clergy or layman officially, but have worked with admiration for both. It has been said before by many wiser than I, in many ways, in many books. It has to do with clergy-laity relationships, and the high wall of demarcation that hampers their communication. This matter surfaced frequently at our committee and group discussions, but sank out of sight again quickly, as it always seems to do.

Those of you who have engaged in group discussion on whatever subject know that a group very rapidly develops its own vernacular – rather like the family jokes that every family shares. In the MRI committee meetings one of the by-words that evolved was "white sheep".

The Bishop, when he left our first day-long session exclaimed with joy: "What laymen!" They are good laymen, to be sure, but there are hundreds more who simply don't know how to get involved, or tie-in with the church at any level . . .but they would like to! A twenty minute monologue from a pulpit once a week does not fulfill their needs or relate the Church's work to their daily lives and tasks. Neither does ushering, the canvass, or a monthly vestry meeting for a few. The Church needs these white sheep to witness in the world, but they need feeding with more than one brief Sunday snack.

For the clergy, be it said, that their mystique of holy knowledge has been traditionally fostered by the laity, who like to place them on a pedestal, where they are well up and out of wordly ways.

Is it not now time to recognize that clergy and laity are one? The laos. The people of God. The Church. The Body of Christ? "For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that body being many, are one body: so also is Christ."

The laity need more tools and resources for their daily encounters in the world. The clergy have the tools and are trained to instruct in their use. Ministry and service to the world is not the mysterious prerogative of the ordained. Herein, I believe, is constituted one of the strictures that slows the circulation and hampers the growth and health of the Church.

"There are differences of administrations and diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all."

APPENDIX H

UNITED NATIONS GENOCIDE AND HUMAN RIGHTS CONVENTIONS

Whereas, The General Convention in 1949 expressed the belief "that the security of the United States, along with that of other countries, can be achieved only as everyone, everywhere in the world, is progressively assured the basic human rights set forth in the (Universal) Declaration of Human Rights"; expressed its support for and urged the U.S. Senate to approve and the President to ratify the "international convention on genocide and agreements in the field of human rights and urges that the United States continue its effort"; and,

Whereas, The failure of the United States Senate to ratify the United Nations Conventions on genocide (adopted by the U.N. in 1949), slavery (adopted by the U.N. in 1956), forced labor (adopted by the U.N. in 1957), and the political rights of women (adopted by the U.N. in 1952), has put our Nation in a position of acute embarrassment through frequent mention of this fact in the U.N. by countries hostile to or critical of the United States; and,

Whereas, None of the above-mentioned conventions contravenes any Federal or State laws of the United States, but together they express sentiments deeply imbedded in our American tradition, and they in no way threaten the security or welfare of our people; and,

Whereas, The General Convention in 1964 adopted a resolution urging the United States Senate "to accomplish the speedy ratification of these Human Rights Conventions"; therefore be it

Resolved, That the 181st Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania concur with the General Convention and petition the United States Senate to ratify the United Nations Conventions on Genocide, Forced Labor, Slavery and the Political Rights of Women; and be it Further resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to Senators Hugh Scott and Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania and Senator J. William Fulbright of Arkansas, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

APPENDIX I–1

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Dean's Report

At the outset of this report, I would like to say that we are singularly blessed by a group of nine clergy, who have assumed, with devotion and concern, their tasks in the various missions of the Convocation of Chester.

Ascension, West Chester, where the Rev. William H. Hill is the vicar, has almost 100 communicants, average attendance of approximately 45 and a Church School of 50. Through the introduction of special services and various activities for men and women and young people, there has been a renewed interest in the church life in Ascension. At the present time, we are in the process of doing some needed work on the mission property which should be finished the early part of next Spring. The mission should then be in good condition.

Ascension, Parksburg, the vicar is the Rev. Anthony J. Mattes. This mission is witnessing a steady growth. It now has 120 communicants and offering and pledges during the year amounted to approximately $7,500. Much work has been done in the past by the congregation in renovating the church and parish house section. The purchase of a new rectory last year proved to be a good move.

St. Andrews, Belmont Hills, due to the hard work of the vicar, the Rev. Hendrik B. Koning, there has been a steady increase both in attendance as well as offering and pledges. $7,500 was raised in offering and pledges and an additional $1,800 by the various organizations. Nineteen persons were confirmed and two received. The renovation of the parish house section, started the year prior to this, has been continued and the church property is now in excellent shape. The facilities for the Church School are much more inviting and have promoted renewed interest.

St. Christopher's, Oxford. This mission is continuing to show signs of strength. A total of $11,500 was raised last year, part of which was for the building fund, but $7,000 was in regular offering and pledges. This shows the potential of St. Christopher's and it is hoped that under the able leadership of the vicar, the Rev. Joseph E. Trimble, Jr., this mission will continue to reach out until they are able to obtain parish status. They now have one hundred families, an average attendance of over 100 and 110 in the Church School.

St. Cyril's, Coatesville. Probably due to the fact that the vicar is also at Ascension, West Chester, and living in West Chester, the statistics of this mission do not show any noticeable change. Nine persons, however, were admitted through Confirmation. The Rev. William H. Hill is doing an excellent and sincere piece of work. It is hoped that with the excellent leadership, building facilities, as well as a dedicated congregation, we will notice a growth in the future. This year there was a good response to the Lenten program and the various special services were well attended.

St. Francis.in.the.Fields, Sugartown. 1964 was the first year for St. Francis-in-the-Fields in the new church, to which the congregation moved from the Goshenville Grange in October 1963. It has been a year of changing patterns and growth. With 64 communicants at the beginning of the year, the mission increased by 57% to one hundred; an even greater increase was experienced in the Church School and in terms of Episcopalian and non-Episcopalian families in the mission. Property improvements were accomplished through special gifts and congregational work projects. While the growth of the congregation will probably be slower in the next few years, until more building occurs in the vicinity of the church, this mission has a bright future and their vicar, the Rev. Edwin A. Garrett, III, and his congregation should be congratulated in what they have been able to accomplish in the past year.

St. James, Green Ridge. The very fact that 23 persons were confirmed at St. James' gives us a clear picture of this mission's potential. They now have 270 communicants, over 130 families, 136 Church School students, the offering and pledges amounted to $10,500, and their Every Member Canvass, conducted in October, resulted in an increase pledging of about $4,000. A parish week day pre-school, on three mornings of the week, now enrolls 25 children. Much physical labor has been done by members of the mission by both men and women and the church property is kept in excellent shape. The vicar is the Rev. Wallace B. Houston and under his devoted leadership this mission is well on the way to gain parish status.

St. John's Compass. The new parish house at St. John's has proved to be a real asset in this community. Due to the fact that not too much building has taken place, the immediate growth will be slow. The vicar, the Rev. Anthony J. Mattes, also serves Ascension, Parksburg, and is not in residence in Compass. This is felt by the congregation in St. John's. The vicar is not able to attend any of the Church School sessions and we are trying to work out some way so that he can at least spend some time with the children of Church School age. The rectory at the present time is being rented and is in fairly good condition but it is an old house and will need continual attention.

St. Luke's, Eddystone. With an average Sunday attendance of 77 and an offering of $8,500 shows signs of a job well done by the vicar, the Rev. William X. Smith, and his congregation. During August, the entire parish house and stairways were repainted, with the teenagers not only providing the labor but also raising the money to purchase the paint. In addition to this, additional work was done to improve the outside of the property. The very encouraging fact is that while they started the year 1964 with $800. in unpaid bills, during the year they were not only able to absorb this deficit but by the end of the year they ended up with a $100 balance. As far as we can discover, this is the first time since the founding of the mission that they have met all their obligations without the help from the outside and the vicar and congregation are to be congratulated on this achievement.

St. Mark's, Honeybrook. This was the first full year for the vicar, the Rev. E. Marshall Bevins. The vicar has been well received by the congregation and community alike. The services are well attended and this mission is continuing to do excellent work in this section of Chester County.

St. Mary's, Chester. In spite of the fact that during the entire year this mission did not have the advantage of having a resident vicar, attendance both in Church and Church School did not drop too much. We are very much indebted to the devoted and loyal services of the Rev. Kenneth C. Slagle, Ph.D., and the Rev. Lewis Worrall, who during the year were in charge of the services. The devotion and dedication of John Davis, the Senior Warden, did much to keep this congregation together in such a very trying time. Fourteen persons were presented to the Bishop for Confirmation. We are fortunate and pleased that the Rev. Oscar E. Holder has accepted the Bishop's appointment to fill this vacancy as of Jan. 1, 1965. We feel that with his experience, understanding and devotion St. Mary's will be able to look forward to a strong and good future.

St. Mary's, Warwick. The vicar of this mission is the Rev. E. Marshall Bevins, who also serves at St. Mark's, Honeybrook. The buildings have been kept in good condition, offerings and pledges amounted to nearly $4,000. and the records show an average attendance of 42. Plans are in process of disposing of the old vicarage, profits of which can then be used for much needed Church School and parish house facilities.

St. Luke's, Highland Gardens. This mission has been under the leadership of the Rev. Lewis H. Worrall, until the Rev. David E. Seaboldt became its vicar as of October 1, 1964. Due to the new highway, this mission is faced with condemnation and as a result, has not shown any growth in the last few years. The Rev. David Seaboldt, however, was able to keep the interest of the congregation; but the future of this mission remains very uncertain.

I am very much indebted to the excellent work of the various committees of the Convocation, especially the Property Committee, the Program Committee and the members of the Executive Committee for their continual help and support, which makes the work of the Dean so much easier. Particularly, I would like to express my thanks for the help and support to the secretary and treasurer, John S. Eiseman.

To the Women of the Convocation, under the leadership of its president Mrs. Victor G. Perrin, my sincere thanks for their ever present help.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN
CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

We are grateful to St. Asaph's, Bala-Cynwyd, and The Church of the Holy Trinity, West Chester, for their hospitality at the Spring and Fall Meetings. Their fine arrangements made our time together a pleasant occasion.

You did a little better with contributions this year. Fifty-four Churches contributed $3332.50 as compared with $3202.50 from fifty-five Churches in 1963. (That was the year of the big increase.) Increases from thirteen Churches offset decreases from six. Several generous and unexpected gifts did much to raise total contributions. Fortunes fluctuate. You do very well.

Attendance at the Fall Meeting was better than in the spring. Even though some people had left, forty-nine parishes voted during the business session in afternoon.

The current project (1964–66) is $5000.00 to St. Mary's Chester, for kitchen and basement renovation. We are ready to pay that at any time.

Headline speakers were from our own diocese—Bishop DeWitt and Dr. Blewett. Many changes in personnel have occured here, and we want to know the new men, as well as have them know us.

In October we voted $500.00 to the Commission on College Work, with a special request that a Church program be put into Lincoln University. Dr. Blewett affirmed this.

Dean Van der Hiel made his report on the Missions vivid and real, using kodachrome slides to illustrate his talk. He would like us to go and see these churches.

There are new currents running in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. If new opportunities for usefulness should unfold for us, let's meet them with our customary vim.

More power to us

APPENDIX I–2
CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN
DEAN'S REPORT

We have nothing that is very exciting to report. There are no new sites selected, no new work begun and no old work discontinued. We began with four missions and we are including in our report the annual reports of these missions. I guess we could summarize the year with the words: "The situation is static."

We have been trying to free from the Diocesan Property Committee, permission to sell a parcel of ground near Fallsington which was purchased a number of years ago for a new site. The Convocation, at a regular meeting, requested the Department of Missions to sell the ground and make monies available for the purchase of a new site near Wrightstown. If this happens, we hope to begin a new work if it is needed.

Incarnation, Morrisville, has purchased a new site in Makefield Township; which is most promising. The parish house has been sold and a new church will be constructed on the new site when the necessary monies are available.

The Rev. William E. Mills, Jr., rector of Incarnation, Morrisville, is chairman of the Strategy Committee of Convocation. There have been a number of meetings of the Bucks County Clergy early in 1964 studying the plans for Bucks County. These meetings were held in Doylestown and were most enlightening.

We had an opportunity to visit the new parish house and renovated church at Doylestown. We commend Father Chisholm and the members of St. Paul's for their work. It is most attractive and practical.

The Dean was invited to an Anniversary Dinner of St. Barnabas, Germantown, at Casi Conti, Glenside. It was a most delightful affair. The rector, The Rev. Oscar E. Holder, announced his resignation and has since moved from the convocation. Father Holder was thanked for his service to us in the Convocation.

The Dean was invited to a supper of the Women of St. Luke's, Newtown, and the House of Prayer. This affair was one in a number of get-togethers of the two congregations. This is a result of the sponsoring program which we instituted last year. We have no reports from the other sponsoring parishes. We had an opportunity to see the new parish house at Newtown which was almost completed but not yet opened.

The Dean has attended the winter meeting of the Women of the Convocation and is most encouraged by their interest and support of the missionary work of the Church at large.

Grace Church, Hulmeville, a former mission of the Convocation, is making plans for extensive repairs to the church building. The growing congregation necessitates enlarging of the present building.

Each of the four missions have completed their Survey Reports. At a recent meeting of the vicars, the question of needs was discussed.

House of Prayer presents the most pressing needs for 1965. The church is old and too small for a growing congregation. The parish house is dilapidated and will require at least $20,000 in repairs to make it presentable. The rectory also is in need of modernization.

Holy Nativity, an aided parish, needs many repairs if it is to continue to serve the community. These two churches are about a mile apart and are feeling the effects of a changing community. Some thought is being given to the seeking of a new location for both churches and combining the work. In the long run, it might be to our advantage to discard old properties and begin work with new facilities at a new site. St. Philip's and All Saints' report progress.

We express our appreciation to the host churches for their hospitality at meetings of Convocation. We also thank the members of the Executive Committee for their faithfulness in attending meetings. We hope that we may have a more glowing report for the next Journal.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN
CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

Three meetings of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Convocation of Germantown were held during 1964. The Education Day Program, beginning with a Corporate Communion, followed by a business meeting, luncheon, and program: "What is the Relationship of the Convocation to the Diocese and to the Parish Church?" was held at St. Matthias in January. The Very Rev. Albert F. Fischer, dean, and the Rev. Charles B. Mauch, rector, celebrated.

On May 19, the Spring Meeting of the Convocation was held at the Cathedral, beginning with Evening Prayer. Dr. Dora Chapman was the dinner speaker and the Rev. William H. Hill spoke to the women about the Church in Jamaica.

The Fall Meeting of the Convocation met at St. Marks' Church, Frankford, on October 27, beginning with Evening Prayer. The Venerable John D. McCarty, in charge of Missions in our Diocese, spoke to all at the dinner. The women had the pleasure of hearing two vicars of the Germantown Convocation: The Rev. William A. Powell, of St. Philip's, New Hope, and the Rev. Jesse F. Anderson Jr., of the House of Prayer, Philadelphia.

APPENDIX I–3
CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

DEAN'S REPORT

Our spring meeting was held at The Church of the Good Shepherd, Hilltown. We were saddened and stunned by the announcement of Bishop Armstrong's death the day of our meeting. We began our meeting with the Holy Eucharist with special prayers for the repose of his soul. Due to this unfortunate news we curtailed our business meeting to a minimum and merely elected those officers as required by the canons. Representatives to the Executive Council of the Diocese who were elected are the Rev. J. Preston Ough and Dr. M. Luther Kauffman, Mr. James Anderson, Jr., was re-elected as our treasurer and the Rev. Herbert E. Rowe was elected as our secretary.

The fall meeting of the Convocation was held at St. Thomas', Whitemarsh. Our speaker was the Rev. Paul Washington who reported on General Convention. We also had brief reports of the college work which is being done within our own convocation. The Rev. Edward Platts reported on his work at Ursinus College, and the Rev. Charles Long, Jr., reported on his work at Beaver College.

St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell. This was the first full year of parish life at St. Dunstan's Church, Blue Bell, our first mission. It continues to grow and thrive, both financially and in terms of membership. The plans for the permanent church are well along and ground will be broken and the building approach completion some time during the year 1965.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Hilltown. This mission continues to thrive under the direction of the Rev. Peter Greenfield. A new vicarage has been built and is now occupied by the Greenfield family.

The Church of the Epiphany, Royersford. The Rev. Richard A. Fenn continues to lead a strong program of relating life of the church to the life of the community. The church continues its program of debt reduction and moves steadily toward parochial status.

Our Executive Committee of the Convocation has met several times and discussed potential new locations for missions within the convocation. Although several possible locations have been suggested, it was felt that we should wait until the Diocesan Self-Study Report was returned with its recommendations before making any concrete plans for the establishment of any new missions. The cooperation of the clergy and laity, as well as the fine work of the women of the convocation, has been extremely helpful to me as dean.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN
CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The interest and enthusiasm shown by the women of the Convocation of Norristown is an inspiration to all. The convocation is growing not only in the number of women attending, but spiritually as well.

In May we met at St. Thomas', Whitemarsh. Holy Communion was celebrated by Bishop Tsu, assisted by Dean Wainwright and the Rev. James R. MacColl. After reports from the vicars, we adjourned to the parish hall for lunch and a brief business meeting.

It was recommended and approved that we send $1,400 to St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell. This amount again represents 100% contribution from the parishes within the convocation. We visited St. Dunstan's for a tour of inspection.

Our evening meeting in May was held at Holy Trinity, Lansdale. It was well attended.

In October, we met at the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown. Bishop DeWitt celebrated Holy Communion. It was a pleasure to have our Bishop with us for the first time. We hope he will be able to be with us often. Our speaker was the Rev. Paul M. Washington. Many people throughout the diocese have had the pleasure to Fr. Washington's most interesting messages. He spoke to us about urban renewal.

The evening meeting in October was held at St. Dunstan's. Attendance at our evening meetings is increasing and greater interest is being shown.

Many thanks to the women of our host parishes for the fine arrangements and hospitality shown to the women and members of the clergy.

SUSANNE H. NOREEN,
President

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The spring meeting of the North Philadelphia Convocation was held at St. Simeon's Church.

Money was given to St. Bartholomew's Church to assist with their new tutoring plan.

Our fall meeting was held at St. Clement's and our speaker was Mrs. J. Barton Linvill, vice-president of the department of promotion. Mrs. Linvill explained the purpose of the Convocations.

We then joined the men at which time the Rev. Robert S. Harris, rector of the Church of the Annunciation, was elected Dean to succeed the Rev. Sherwood Van Atta.

Dinner followed and Archdeacon McCarty was introduced to the group.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The April meeting was held at St. Paul's Church, on Tues., April 28. The speaker was Mrs. Elbert K. St. Claire, who talked about books, and how to read and enjoy them.

The January meeting was held at Trinity Memorial Church on Jan. 26. Our speaker was Miss Mary Louise Wood who gave us a most interesting "trip" through the Holy Land, and her talk was illustrated with beautiful slides. The ladies of Trinity Memorial served a lovely tea, with most delicious cakes and cookies.

The October meeting was held at St. Philip's Church on Tues., Oct. 27. The Rev. Joseph H. Laird, head of the Conference Center, gave an informative talk on Denbigh, illustrated with slides. Mrs. John H. Olmes, who is in charge of volunteer workers at Episcopal Community Services, enlightened us on the wonderful work being done there.

All our meetings are preceded by devotions and a short business meeting.

We contribute to:

The Chinese Christian Church
The May Fete of Episcopal Hospital
The Elizabeth Price Martin League at P.G.H.
The summer project at St. Andrews' Church

APPENDIX I–6
CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The spring meeting of the Convocation was held at the Church of The Saviour, 38th and Ludlow Sts., April 21. This was a combined meeting with the Convocation of Chester. The men of the West Philadelphia Convocation and of Chester Convocation held their respective business meetings at 5:00 p.m., and the women of West Philadelphia Convocation held their meeting at 4:00 p.m.

The nominating committee reported and re-elected: the Rev. Frederick M. Brooks, secretary and Wells Stevens, treasurer. The Dean appointed the chairmen of the following committees: Property, the Rev. Jesse Anderson, Sr.; Finance, the Rev. James Gilbert; Strategy, the Rev. John Bomberger, and Program, the Rev. Edward Rementer. Elected to the Diocesan Council were the Rev. Matthew Davis and Dr. Clyde Ryalls.

The Rev. John Scott, rector of St. Mary's, Hamilton Village, presented a resolution which was passed. It was voted to submit this resolution to the Diocesan Convention. The resolution recommended study and action relevant to our local situations in the diocese, in pursuit of civil rights and equal opportunity for all men.

At the dinner, the Convocations were addressed by the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt. Following the dinner, a service of Evening Prayer was conducted by Dean Van Der Heil and Dean Acton. Reports were then submitted by the clergy in both convocations in charge of missions.

The fall meeting of the Convocation was held on October 29, at St. James', Kingsessing, beginning with a service of Evening Prayer at 4:00 p.m., conducted by the Dean and The Rev. James Gilbert. Communications were read relative to the Department of Laymen's Work urging all clergy to enlist the services of the laymen in their missions and parishes. Considerable discussion then followed concerning St. Monica's and its future. To date it has not been possible to find a new site for the re-location of St. Monica's. The possibility of a merger with an existing parish was then discussed. A definite conclusion was not reached.

The newly appointed Archdeacon, the Ven. John D. McCarty, was introduced. He spoke briefly about his role in the diocese and willingness to assist all missions and parishes in their work.

The speaker at the dinner was Sydney P. Lea, a deputy to General Convention from the diocese, who presented a very interesting and informative report relative to the convention.

A forward step was taken in the convocation in that during the year the joining together of the clergy and people of St. Barnabas', Haddington, an incorporated parish, and the clergy and people of St. Cyprian's, Eastwick, was put into effect. The legal corporate name of the combined congregations will be known as St. Barnabas', Haddington. The vicar of St. Cyprian's will be employed by St. Barnabas' as assistant to the rector with the title of associate rector.

As Dean of the Convocation, I express my thanks and appreciation for the devoted and dedicated leadership of the clergy and laity. Grateful thanks is also extended to the officers and members of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Convocation for the assistance which they have given to our existing Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

THE VERY REV. NATHANIEL C. ACTON

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN
CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

There were three meetings held during 1964. January 16th was observed as Education Day at St. Thomas', 52nd and Parrish Sts. Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rev. Jesse Anderson, rector. A brief business meeting was held in the parish house followed by lunch provided by the women of the host parish. Mrs. Edward J. Parnum, vice-president of the Department of Ecumenical Relations, presented an excellent explanation of ecumenicity.

The spring meeting was held at the Church of The Saviour, April 21st. Meeting was opened with prayer by Dean Acton. A business meeting followed and the election of officers. Following dinner there was a meeting with the men of the Convocation of Chester.

The fall meeting was held October 29th at St. James', Kingsessing. Evening Prayer was conducted by Dean Acton and the Rev. James Gilbert. Following the service the women held a meeting in the parish house. The Ven. John McCarty, Archdeacon, addressed this meeting. Following the business meeting the Rev. Edward Rementer spoke of the Powelton Mantua summer project at St. Andrew's, West Philadelphia.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

MRS. ROBERT C. LEA, JR.

The purpose of the Diocesan Episcopal Churchwomen is to be a channel for the general Church Program to parishes from the General Division of Women's Work, and to promote understanding and carrying out of the mission of the Church by the women. We have done this in the past by presenting monthly programs with speakers at Church House in each of the Departments of Missions, Christian Social Relations, Prayer and Worship, Diocesan Affairs and Ecumenical Relations. These meetings were attended by delegates from parishes who in turn reported back to monthly parish meetings. This is no longer successful. Church membership has increased in the diocese but attendance at Church House is dwindling. Furthermore, parish presidents are concerned that the majority of the women are not involved in their organization and leadership is hard to find. On the diocesan level, communication of program is suffering. In the parish, the majority of men and women have too little understanding of the Church's mission.

This has been a year of self-appraisal by the ECW inspired by the Anglican call to renewal and by the Triennial study of God's Action in a Changing World, and the Roles and Opportunities of Women in Church and Society.

We know about the need for new wineskins. This is the title of the report of the General Division of Women's Work to Triennial. If indeed the new wine of a re-interpreted Gospel and a Church militant is stretching the old skins, the Episcopal Churchwomen are alert to this. In our diocese we have been stirring up parish officers to examine the activities of their women for relevance to the Church's mission; to find out about the women's lives and needs; and to free themselves from poorly attended set meetings and from over-organization.

Our self-examination has faced us with the anachronism of our ways. Women's church groups in America are still geared to the 1870's when Churchwomen began sending household supplies and handmade clothes to families of missionaries, when baking and sewing were women's best means of acquiring money. Women of the mid-20th Century are freed from domesticity by assembly line short cuts and are educated as highly as men. They need creative outlets. They hunger for something really important to do and many have sought it in employment. It's a waste of the Church's resources to challenge them with a bazaar or second-hand reports unrelated to action. They should be confronted with vital issues and offered demanding volunteer projects.

The Church has been slow to recognize changes in the status of women and their relationship to man's world. It has become apparent to psychiatrists and employers that the overlap in activities and capabilities of men and women is greater than the differences – masculine and feminine traits are found in both. Man's world no longer requires physical strength so much as accuracy and quickness of thought. Despite Paul's words that "there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus", we still have a masculinely oriented Church which has encouraged women to go their own way, raise money, however possible, do good works for the entire Church, and keep themselves occupied in their own organization, staying out of the councils and vestries where real decisions are being made.

The Women's independent activity has both served and impeded the Church. It impedes the Church in its parochial centeredness and in the image of irrelevlance it presents to outsiders. Furthermore women, by being well organized, have tended to take over the religious life for the family. This has been bad for the men, and clergy, too, who find themselves out of touch with men's lives. The women may have to die organizationally to restore balance to the parish family.

Our Diocesan Board this year has been doing more listening and less lecturing. We have cut down on the number of meetings at Church House, which enables us to offer programs in convenient areas of the diocese and to make more parish visits. In recent years there has been an increase in evening Episcopal Churchwomen's groups – they now outnumber the daytime ones. Eighteen parishes or missions have no women's group, and one has an ECW and no rector!' We have held a series of small parish leadership meetings in groups of ten neighboring churches to discuss whether the ECW should wither or whither it should go. In considering the possible elimination of the ECW we have been mindful of the MRI warning "not to abandon any channel or system of approach until we have a better one". We are de-emphasizing organization and promoting two things: education for mission for the laity and community involvement, community meaning the Diocese, the metropolis of Philadelphia. Women are aware that increased commitment will be born of a strengthened prayer life. The meetings and retreats of the Department of Prayer and Worship have continued to draw good numbers. This year a Lenten study of the Sacraments was advocated.

In evaluating our Diocesan work we have noted two trends; the overlapping of departments and increasing cooperation between the men and women. There has been such commingling of departmental areas of concern that in some ways our organization is dissolving by itself. It is hard to remember what department was responsible for which meeting when Archdeacon McCarty, addressing the Prayer and Worship ladies ostensibly on the "Validity of the Sacraments", talks of the need for MRI between parishes of the Diocese; or Canon Vail tells a Diocesan Affairs meeting about the Departments of Diocesan Council instead of institutions of the Diocese; and Miss Goddard, of Episcopal Community Services (which is Diocesan Affairs to us), addresses a Christian Social Relations Department meeting on family counselling. This is fine – it emphasizes that our mission is one, and Christian concerns of the Diocese are indeed interdependent.

Then there is the increasing cooperation with the departments of Diocesan Council; the men. Dr. Blewett moderates our promotion meetings on summer service projects. We expect further joint efforts in tutoring or literacy work. Our Go-See Trip to All Saints' Hospital was planned in conjunction with the Diocesan Fund Campaign. The Conference Center Women's Committee has provided office help for the director, Joseph Laird, plus furniture, flowers and Chapel improvements. The Diocesan ECW joined the Department of Laymen in sponsoring a school of Theology for the Laity at Philadelphia Divinity School.

The ECW has centered missionary concern beyond the Diocese on "Mission among New Nations", but our United Thank Offering grants cover the Anglican Communion. We presented $240,000 at the Triennial UTO Service, the largest amount ever from one diocese. And, $64,000 is coming back to Pennsylvania in a grant to the Episcopal Community Services for a Volunteer Training Pilot Project under Dr. Arnold Purdie. Through ecumenical gatherings at Church House we give assurance to other churches that our unifying efforts in the Anglican Communion will not lessen our cooperation. We have programmed a Roman Catholic priest on "The Vatican Council" and a Presbyterian on "Consultations on Church Union."

The changing activities of the venerable Supply Department can be watched like a weather vane for the temper of the times in women's work. In a sense it is the most anachronistic of all our activities but it preserves the personal contact of a parish here with a mission there. Now, instead of medical supplies from the home larder, school bags are sent to aid literacy work in the field. Materials and cash for sewing machines are sent to mission women to enable them to do their own sewing. Thus, supply has adapted to changing conditions. Anne Longstreth, the presiding angel of our cutting room, has cut her way unperturbed through all changes, but retires this year. It is impossible to estimate how many people in this world have been materially benefited by her long and loyal service.

Other than occasional sewing and baking there has been little concerted social action by the Churchwomen. Yet, should not the Church promote some activity neglected by society and sorely needed? The Church is, traditionally, adventurer and innovator. If she loses her zest and boldness she may lose her soul. Other institutions can keep things going. Church women have been dissipating their powers in too much self-maintenance.

We need a big concentrated Church work comparable to the original work of the Women's Auxiliary, the supplying and backing of overseas missionaries. The Women of the Church then were doing something together for the spread of the Kingdom which no other group would do and to which their talents and time were suited. We still have the spread of the Kingdom as our charge, but today Christianity has been taken to all parts of the world, which alters the nature of our missionary work. We aren't taking Christianity where it isn't. We are realizing that Christianity is calling us to where God is; in the midst of injustice, want and disease, not only far but near; and telling His faithful ones that here is a point where love needs to fight, or where healing is needed. Here the devil is in possession, here a blind spot needing sight.

For the women I do not know that this will be. Women can teach. There is a need for improved education for segments of our people. Women are homemakers, healers, and standard setters. There is need for strengthening community responsibility, neighborhood and family loyalties. There is a need for an increased sense of the sacredness of life, of the goodness of creation.

Somewhere in here the Church is meant to lead the way. Those who are convinced that all souls exist for God and that evil and despair and waste can be transformed, should never cease to work for such transformation – never give up hope.

The 91st Annual Meeting

MINUTES

Mrs. Edwin H. Rogers

The 91st Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen was held on Wednesday, May 5, 1965, at Denbigh, at 10:30 a.m. and opened with the singing of Hymn 282. Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr., President, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Minturn Wright, Department of Prayer and Worship, led in prayer.

It was moved, seconded and carried that we dispense with the reading of the minutes of the 90th Annual Meeting.

Mrs. J. Ebert Butterworth, Treasurer, gave the Treasurer's Report. The financial books have been filed for audit.

Mrs. Charles Myers read the proposed amendment for change in the Constitution. Article I – Name "The name of this Association shall be Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of Penna." ADD: – (formerly known as the Woman's Auxiliary). The purpose of the amendment is to facilitate legal tracing of title in connection with legacies. It was moved, seconded and carried that the amendment be adopted.

Mrs. Lea, in giving the President's Report, commented on the three top level changes in the Diocese including the resignation of the Executive Secretary of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Penna., Mrs. John L. Fox. Mrs. Fox has served in this capacity for the last ten years and will be very much missed by all. The new Executive Secretary was introduced and welcomed, Mrs. Joseph N. Leo. In the Report, Mrs. Lea mentioned that it was the purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen to channel the general church's program to the parishes. There are changes in the concept of the way this is to be accomplished and we should never cease to work for this transformation. Highlights of the reports of the officers of the Diocesan Board were given.

The retiring officers were thanked for their untiring efforts in carrying out their past responsibilities: – Mrs. Minturn Wright, Mrs. Howard W. Taylor, Jr., Mrs. J. Barton Linvill, Mrs. Arthur W. Howe, Jr., Mrs. Cuthbert Latta, Mrs. Roy D. LaPlante, Mrs. William E. Lingelbach, Jr.

Mrs. William E. Lingelbach, Jr., Chairman of the Nominating Committee, submitted the following slate which had been approved by Bishop DeWitt, The Executive Committee, and the Diocesan Board, to serve for three year terms, with the exception of the Chairman of the Nominating Committee who is elected annually:

Vice-President, Department of Prayer and Worship	Mrs. Richard W. Thorington
Vice-President, Department of Diocesan Affairs	Mrs. Benjamin E. Eaton
Vice-President, Department of Promotion	Mrs. Charles W. G. VanHorn St. Peters', Glenside

Vice-President, Department of Supply	Mrs. Dane E. Wells
Chairman 1966 Nominating Committee	Mrs. Boudinot Stimpson

Mrs. Lingelbach read from the By-Laws, Article II, Section 2, Paragraph b. Nominations may be made from the floor by any voting member, providing such nominations have been seconded by not less than ten members and approved by the Bishop two weeks prior to the meeting.

In the absence of nominations from the floor, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot. The newly elected officers were introduced.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 11:15 a.m.

REPORTS OF THE OFFICERS OF THE DIOCESAN BOARD

The full, original reports are on file in the office. It was necessary to cut some of them to conform to the space in the JOURNAL.

THE VICE–PRESIDENT–AT–LARGE

Mrs. Allen Hunter White

During the year 1964-65, the following evening meetings were held. (The January meeting was cancelled due to bad weather.)

September	Keynote: "Christian Mission in the New Nations, Malawi," Mrs. Richard Claytor.
October	Keynote: "General Convention and Triennial Meeting." Reports by the women delegates.
February	Keynote: "Understanding the Sacraments", Dr. C. Edward Hopkin.
April	Program Planning for 1965–66.

Due to a study and evaluation of the program and schedule of meetings, it was decided to schedule only keynote meetings in the evenings for 1965-66.

DEPARTMENT OF PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Mrs. Minturn Wright

In "Far and Near" a provocative story is told of the man who complains he has run out of the fruits of the Spirit. He begs for some love, joy, peace, integrity and discipline from the angel keeping God's store of gifts. "We do not stock fruits," replies the angel "only seeds".

The year's work, undergirded by the double influence of a study of the sacraments and the new call to mission proceeding from General Convention, is well called a harvesting of seeds. Warm thanks go to the "farmers" who have led us: Father Kintzing at the Retreat; our Bishop at the Advent Quiet Morning; Dr. Hopkin, Father Alberts and Archdeacon McCarty on various aspects of the sacrements; Dean Wainwright fittingly concluding the year with the subject "The Peace of God", and also to Mr. Pollanick who suggested the study book.

Two new projects were well received. A prayer groups workshop was held at Denbigh in the fall, where nearly a hundred women gathered to share problems and prospects, with special programs by Mrs. Albert V. Fowler and Mrs. Charles F. Penniman, Jr. A fifteen church celebration of the Feast of the Annunciation was planned and executed by the Convocation Prayer Chairmen, under Mrs. Charles B. Allen. The generosity of the churches involved was deeply appreciated.

For at least six years the Rev. Dr. Thorne Sparkman has been the committee's chaplain, counsellor and friend, stimulating them to creative thinking and tireless energy.

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN AFFAIRS

Mrs. Howard W. Taylor, Jr.

The meetings of the department were planned with special emphasis on MRI.

October 2	Chaplain James F. McElroy spoke on the history and work of The Seaman's Church Institute.
January 6	Dr. William E. Blewett, Director of the Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions, addressed a combined meeting of the Home Division of the Department of Missions and our department on "The Mission at Our Doorstep". He commented on the changing character of the academic community.
February 5	Canon Vail, in the absence of the Archdeacon, spoke of the work undertaken by Archdeacon McCarty's office with the Department of Missions, the Deans of the Convocations, and placement of new missions and clergy.
April 2	The annual Go-See Trip was to All Saints' Hospital this year. Approximately forty women were entertained for lunch.

THE FOUNDERS COMMITTEE OF THE COOPERATIVE SHOP held their annual card party on Nov. 12. At that time a check for $100 was presented to Dean Harris for the Divinity School. Donations of salable articles were received for the Cooperative Shop.

THE BISHOP'S COMMITTEE FOR THE DIVINITY SCHOOL. The needlepoint cushions for St. Andrew's Chapel were dedicated in November at Evensong. The "Friends of the School" tea took place on April 28. The guests of honor were Bishop and Mrs. Warnecke.

THE EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMITTEE. Mrs. Karl Beyer was elected chairman. This is the tenth anniversary of the committee which provides speakers on the Episcopal Community Services, and works closely with them.

WOMEN'S COMMITTEE OF THE CONFERENCE CENTER has been in existence for one and one-half years. It has concentrated its work on the interior of Denbigh. To be noted are the new appointments and improvements in the Chapel, new furniture in all the downstairs rooms, and the lovely flower arrangements. Mrs. Richard Thorington and her volunteers have also assisted the Director with office work. A tea in honor of Bishop and Mrs. DeWitt was held on April 22.

Mrs. John P. Lutz

The Keynote subject for the Overseas Division for the past year was "The Church's Mission Among New Nations", with particular emphasis on the new nations of Africa.

The Rt. Rev. Cedric E. Mills, Bishop of the Missionary District of the Virgin Islands, spoke at the November meeting. As a result of the interest aroused by Bishop Mills in his work, the Overseas delegates voted to send $250 of their legacy money to All Saints' School, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

Overseas Division Meeting

September	Evening Keynote: "The Church's Mission Among New Nations – Malawi," Mrs. Richard Claytor.
October	Morning Keynote: "The Church's Mission Among New Nations – Uganda, Rwanda and Burundi," The Rev. J. Henry Okullu.
November	The Church's Work in the Virgin Islands – the Rt. Rev. Cedric E. Mills, Bishop of the Missionary District of the Virgin Islands.
January	The Problems of our Church in Cuba – The Rev. Luis O. Arcacha.
February	Problems and Prospects of the Christian Mission–Mrs. Siter Owen, Member of the General Division of Women's Work.
March	Joint Meeting with the United Thank Offering Custodians: The Church in Taiwan – The Rev. William A. Buell, former Professor at Tung Hai University, Taichung, Taiwan.

Home Division Meetings

Mrs. Randall Copeland, Chairman

November	Speaker: Father Joseph Parsell, Order of the Holy Cross. Subject: Religious Orders in this country.
January	Joint meeting with the Department of Diocesan Affairs – The Rev. William E. Blewett, D.D., Director of the Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions. Subject: "Mission on our Doorstep".
February	Joint meeting with the Supply Department. Speaker: Mrs. Howard O. Bingley, Associate Secretary in the General Division of Women's Work. Subject: Home Missions and Supply and How They Relate".
April	Speaker: The Rev. Charles C. Frazier, Director of Migrant Ministry, Pennsylvania Council of Churches. Subject: "Ministry to Migrants-Their Problems and Their Needs".

Mrs. Henry L. Hood

Like all other areas of our work with Episcopal Churchwomen, Christian Education has been influenced by the winds of change in the lives of the women of the church. In addition to the keynote meetings held throughout the year and the Leadership Training Conference in June, eight area meetings were held. At these meetings, held over the year, the President and the Christian Education Chairman met with approximately twenty women from eight to ten parishes each time. The meetings were most productive; the women are taking a new look at their lives and the structures of their organizations and this is good.

Program Planning meetings for the study themes "Mission: the Christian's Calling" and "Intercessory Prayer" were held on April 21 and May 7 in the Church House and May 5 at Denbigh.

Your chairman is appreciative of the opportunities to attend the Hood Conference, General Convention and Triennial, a Provincial Three Phase Institute in Richmond, and a Joint CE/CSR Regional Conference in New York.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Mrs. Horace J. Wheaton

The past year has been an exciting one for the Christian Social Relations Department. The Vice-President was a delegate to Triennial where most of the resolutions adopted by the women were concerned with phases of CSR. She also represented the Diocese at a Christian Education-CSR Conference in New York. Civil Rights has been in the forefront involving active support from many of the women.

October	Keynote Meeting on Triennial. "What the Philadelphia Association for Youth is Doing About Some of The Problems in This City". The speaker was Stephen H. Kneisel, Executive Director of the Crime Prevention Association of Philadelphia.
January	"Christian Social Relations on the Parish Level" – dialogue: Mrs. William Hudson and Mrs. Howard Oakie, Co-chairmen of the Christian Social Relations Committee of St. Martin's Church, Radnor.
February	"Social Work and the Church". Miss Isabel Goddard, Supervisor of Family Counseling, Episcopal Community Services.

April — Report from the Interdenominational Washington Churchmen's Seminar held in February. The subject was "Your Government and You". Mrs. John Forrester and Mrs. William Hudson, delegates from Christian Social Relations, made the report.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #1 at Philadelphia General Hospital took patients to the Circus, the Flower Show and various chapel services. The group from St. George's, Ardmore, continued with special work in the Psychiatric Wards. Women of Christ Church Hospital again sent gifts at Christmas. Two radios were provided for the Urology Ward. Pediatrics Ward received new window shades and decals for walls. Volunteers gave more than 2526 hours of service during the year. A total of 1880 packages were distributed at Christmas.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #2 at Episcopal Hospital accomplishes its objectives through fourteen committees and major fund raising events, the annual May Fete, participation in the Emergency Aid Christmas Bazaar, the February card party, and the Corner Store which operates continuously as the Hospital's Snack Bar. During the past year the League contributed approximately $21,000 toward its $75,000 pledge to the Hospital's Building Fund. Other contributions included the cost of redecorating the "Beau Room" in the Nurses' Residence, recovering chairs in the Lounge, two commodes, a walker and a wheel chair for Harrison House, lights for the X-ray reception room, a new water fountain for the Out-Patient department, and the Marie Perkins Ramsay Memorial Fund for the School of Nursing Library. This year the League continued to donate funds for special needs to the Chaplaincy Services, and to aid the Office of Volunteer Services by paying travel expenses for hospital representatives attending conferences and workshops.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #3 at Riverview Home has been helped by the Episcopal Churches working under the League to serve the residents of Riverview in many wonderful ways. The Riverview Burial Fund for Episcopal Residents has been organized to give comfort to the living and a Christial burial for the dead. The City of Philadelphia, which owns and operates Riverview, makes no provision for burying the indigent. Under the direction of the Episcopal Community Services and the priest at Riverview, the fund is available for the buriel of any Episcopal, resident at Riverview who is without funds or capable family. Church services are held in all buildings under the guidance of Father Powers and Deaconess Searle. The Annual Communion Service and breakfast was conducted by the Rt. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt. Bringing Christ's ministry to Riverview is done in countless ways by the faithful and devoted Episcopal Volunteers who serve at the Annual Picnic, Christmas workshop, Easter dress sale, and wherever needed. At Easter about 1000 dresses were received and each woman at Riverview selected a dress, hat and handbag. The monthly birthday parties are sponsored by 12 churches and 1100 residents receive a birthday gift and are entertained during the year.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #4 at Fair Acres began its sixth year with the summer school activities at the Children's Cottage, under the supervision of Mrs. Ross. The League volunteers helped with teaching arts and crafts. Two volunteers continued to work with pre-school children throughout the year. The Recreation Committee arranged a Game Night with trophies and refreshments in the Men's Building. Father Battin, Episcopal Chaplain, visits 77 Episcopal guests as well as numerous Roman Catholics and Jews in his ministry at Fair Acres. Chapel attendance under Fr. Andrews, St. Martin's, Marcus Hook, is increasing. Singing is led by a small choir of volunteers and guests. A memorial to Fr. Rennie, the first chaplain, was dedicated in Holy Week. At a Christmas Festival homemade food and Christmas greens were sold. There was a Christmas party with candlelight, carol singing and stockings. The League presented the Men's Building with a small freezer for Christmas. This year the League added work among the blind and craft work for the women to its growing activities.

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. J. Barton Linvill

The Department of Promotion worked this past year mainly in three areas, THE CHURCH NEWS, Christian Ministries and the Convocations.

The Department was responsible for gathering and editing the news articles of the Episcopal Churchwomen for the CHURCH NEWS. We have received the fullest cooperation of Mr. Walter N. Connors and his fine staff in the CHURCH NEWS office.

Under Christian Ministries, we were happy to announce last fall that a $1,500 Lea Hill Scholarship was given to Mrs. Alice Boardman, of Ardmore, towards a year of graduate study at the School of Social Work of Bryn Mawr College. In April a Lea Hill Scholarship for $1,000 was awarded to Miss Carolyn Loper who will pursue her graduate studies at Wyndham House in New York.

We continued to promote summer service project opportunities for high school and college students in the Diocese. The third annual college conference was held in December at the Church House, when six local students described their rewarding summer experiences.

The newly organized Diocesan Committee on Voluntary Service Projects, under the chairmanship of the Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, will now coordinate all service projects, summer and year-round, those in our own Diocese, and those nationwide and worldwide. This committee will be working closely with the Episcopal Churchwomen in the organization and promotion of new projects, particularly in our own Diocese. These projects will have need of volunteers of all ages, men and women. This will be challenging work.

The Chairmen of the Women's Convocations have enjoyed meeting with our Archdeacon, John D. McCarty, who is in charge of the mission work in the Diocese. His understanding and interest in women's work, his knowledge of needs, and his rare wit have made the Women's Convocation work more meaningful.

DEPARTMENT OF ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

Mrs. Edward J. Parnum

We have been urged to make the purpose and spirit of ecumenical movement a vital and visible force in local churches and communities. With this imperative in mind, the Department of Ecumenical Relations had three very successful meetings. All of these meetings were attended by women of various protestant denominations, as well as a good representation from several Roman Catholic groups.

November 21 "The Introductory Study of Approaches to Christian Unity", for laymen and clergy, prepared by the Committee on Ecumenical Relations, was explained, Mrs. John P. Lutz gave the ecumenical highlights of the General Convention in St. Louis.

February 26 The Rev. George L. Hunt, D.D., a Presbyterian clergyman and a leading spirit in Christian unity, presented the progress of the Consultations on Church Union. Six denominations, including the Episcopal Church, have participated.

March 26 The Rev. Thomas B. Falls, of the Church of the Sacred Heart in Manoa, Pa., and one of four Roman Catholic priests invited to the Second Vatican Council from this country, had as the topic of his talk, "Interpretations of the Vatican Councils for Other Christians". The Rev. Wilfred F. Penny, Rector of Christ Church, Pottstown, Pa., was the moderator of the meeting.

Mrs. Charles F. Perkins and Mrs. W. Howard Riegner have been representatives to the Department of United Church Women of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Mrs. Rayburn C. Smith, Jr.

Miss Elizabeth Beath, Associate Secretary of the United Thank Offering, addressed the parish custodians in September. She spoke of her ten years work in New York and also showed her slides, "From Grateful Hearts" which were taken on her trip to Central America.

A check for $240,000 from the Women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the largest gift ever given by any Diocese, was presented at the Triennial in St. Louis.

Our Fall Ingathering was held at Christ Church, Philadelphia, where Bishop Cedric Mills of the Virgin Islands addressed us. He spoke about his work and about the General Convention. Our fall offering was over $36,000.

On March 17 in a joint meeting with the Overseas Department, we heard from Dr. William Buell, the former head of St. George's School, Newport, R. I., of his three years teaching in Taiwan, with fascinating slides to acquaint us with the country.

The Spring Ingathering was held at the Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel on May 12. Mrs. Harold Sorg, the presiding officer of the Triennial, spoke to us on Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ. Bishop DeWitt celebrated Holy Communion assisted by six clergy, and received a plate offering of $518 and the ingathering of approximately $35,500. At the luncheon following we had the pleasure of having our host, General Baker, with us. We are most grateful for the use of his delightful facilities and the inspiration of the Academy's superbly trained choir under the direction of Major Woodside.

DEPARTMENT OF SUPPLY

Mrs. Arthur W. Howe, Jr.

The assignment from the National Executive Council was completed:

St. Luke's College of Nursing, Japan	$500.00
Convent of the Transfiguration, Puerto Rico	125.00
Interchurch Medical Assistance	25.00
Supply Secretary's Gift Fund	100.00

St. Bernard's Mission, Okolona, Mississippi—700 Garments made in the parishes, including dresses, slips, pajamas, shirts, etc.

In addition to the assignment, 236 garments were made for Church World Service, 195 bed jackets for the Emergency Aid of Philadelphia, and 1697 articles for the Episcopal Hospital. 600 surgical dressings were sent to St. Luke's Hospital in Ponce, Puerto Rico, and 94 sweaters, 24 pairs of mittens and 18 caps were knit for the Church of the Advocate and for Church World Service.

Mrs. Howard Bingley, Associate Secretary for Supply, General Division of Women's Work, National Executive Council, spoke at a meeting, explaining the changes in the Supply Work. She requested an additional assignment, consisting of a cash gift of $100, to be sent to the Resurrection Mission in Manati, Puerto Rico, and ready-mades, such as blue jeans and underwear, sent to the Indian Mission of St. Mary the Virgin at Nixon, Nevada.

Miss Anne Longstreth retires this year, after giving many, many years to cutting and assembling innumerable garments. She has been the mainstay of the Supply Department, staffing the cutting room for the Diocese of Pennsylvania, one of the two cutting rooms in this country.

DEPARTMENT OF HOSPITALITY

Mrs. Cuthbert Latta

The chairman and co-chairman, Mrs. Ophelia Williams, prepared and served luncheons from September 1964 to May 1965 for 563 women and 31 men.

The dinner preceding the Fall Ingathering of the United Thank Offering was held at Old Christ Church, Philadelphia, and was attended by 165. Members of the clergy, General Baker and his staff of Valley Forge Military Academy, joined 471 women for luncheon on May 12, following the Spring Ingathering of the UTO.

MISSION SHOP

Mrs. C. Fenno Hoffman

Articles and cards from far and near are on sale in the shop on the first floor of the Women's Building. The volume of business is large, and all profits are used to benefit the work of the Church in the Mission field. It is hoped that by calling attention to the handiwork of those who need our help, we will contribute to an understanding of the Church's far-reaching interests.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Mrs. William Day

The following names were entered in the Book of Remembrance:

Vera Petman Hoven
Martha U. Waldman Davis
Anna L. Downs
Mildred Dallett
Katherine Flick
Charlotte Jepson Thompson
Deaconess Elizabeth G. Newbold
Deaconess Gertrude Stewart

Gifts totaling $131.00 were sent to:

United Thank Offering
Episcopal Community Services
Diocesan Altar Guild
Chinese Christian Church and Center

THE CONFERENCE OF THE PROVINCE OF WASHINGTON

Mrs. John L. Fox

The Diocese was well represented at the Provincial Conference in June 1964; ten men, twenty-seven women (including three couples and three clergymen) attended.

The theme, "The Changing Role of Men and Women in the Christian Mission Today" was ably presented by Mrs. Theodore Wedel. As a top officer of the National Council of Churches, Cynthia Wedel has been significantly related to serious studies regarding the roles of men and women. She added her concept of the changing patterns in women's Church organizations. Bishop C. Gresham Marmion was the "wise and Godly pastor-chaplain", so necessary to a good conference.

The popular course in Human Relations Training was led by a corps of trainers, under the direction of the Rev. John Denham, Executive Secretary of Christian Education of the Diocese of Maryland.

Evening programs included two innovations: Chancel Dances and a Hootnanny, as well as the usual high point of the week, the organ recital. Inspiration, learning and pleasure were happily combined during the week.

AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS

The Altar Guild

Mrs. Daniel S. Wood

An Institutional Chaplain who spoke at an Altar Guild meeting said he was glad to meet the women who stood in the background and helped him in his work. That describes the Altar Guild well. If we can help the Priests who stand at the Altar and from there minister to "all those in sorrow, need, sickness or any other adversity" we feel we are taking a positive part in Mutual Responsibility.

Some of the Altar furnishings we have given this year are:

The State Correctional Institute – 2 cassocks, 2 cottas

The House of Correction – fair linen, Altar Service Book, albs, amices

Holmesburg Prison – amices

Detention Center – amices

Riverview – green stole, linens

Episcopal Hospital – 2 fair linens, protector, wafer box

All Saints Hospital – fair linen, undercover, pyx

U. S. Naval Hospital – linens, Altar Service Book, pyx, alb, amices

St. Barnabas, Kensington – linens

The Conference Center – set of Altar brass, linens

St. Stephen's Mission, Dominican Republic – portable Communion set

St. Peter's Church, Weymouth, Nova Scotia – Funeral pall

Bp. Saucedo of Mexico – $100

Church Periodical Club

Mrs. Paul W. Lingle

This has been a record breaking year for the Church Periodical Club. Each department has increased its contributions over last year.

Our gifts included:

St. Vincent's School, Haiti – $365 to aid handicapped children

Walter Hannum, Alaska – $125 for books on alcoholism

St. George's Seminary, Jerusalem – $100

Williams Seminary, Japan – $100

Bishop Tucker Seminary, Uganda – $100

Codrington Seminary, British West Indies – $100

Episcopal Community Services – $200 for the records for the blind

Mt. Sitka High School, Alaska – 125 books

Divinity Students from the Diocese of Pa. – 17 sets of the Interpreter's Bible

Each Middler at the Philadelphia Divinity School – a $5 book

Through trading stamps we were able to give 179 Bibles. Over four and a half tons of used grade school books were sent to the Philippines for use in our Mission schools there. More than 800 magazine subscriptions were sent to all parts of the world and many women remailed their magazines to help fulfill requests.

The Annual Meeting was held at Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, in January. The Rt. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt celebrated Holy Communion.

The Girls' Friendly Society

Mrs. Elmer H. Billings

During this past year the Girls' Friendly Society has encountered many changes throughout the country. The National governing body, located in the Episcopal Church Center, New York, has emerged successfully from this period of transition. The Diocese of Pennsylvania has shouldered much of the burden and shared considerably in this task.

Following the close of branch activities last Spring, a delightful summer program held at Holiday House, Cape May, was enjoyed by many young members.

GFS World Day of Prayer on September 29 opened the new fall season of branch activities in the Diocese.

The Mission Object, decided by the National GFS Board, was to allocate $3500 for a Leadership Program at St. Anne's Mission, El Paso, Texas. The Mission is a mixed congregation of Negro and Spanish speaking people. It is hoped this program will bring about better understanding and fellowship to these girls.

The Mission Service and Annual Junior Day was held at St. Barnabas Church, Haddington. The speaker was the Rev. Arthur E. Woolley, Jr. The Senior and Sponsor Mission Night was held at Old Christ Church with a supper following the service. The Rev. J. William Shepherd was the speaker for the evening.

Recalling the inspiring Lenten Pilgrimage to the Washington Cathedral and the numerous unmentioned Christian Social Relation Services of our branches, we have had a successful, fruitful year. With the knowledge of Our Lord's love and help, we shall continue to grow in His grace.

Order of the Daughters of the King

Elizabeth A. Jenks

Although there are at present less than 100 members in six active chapters of the Order of the Daughters of the King in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the quality of devotion to the rules of Prayer and Service more than compensates for the small number.

Each Chapter stands ready to serve the rector when called upon for service. Individually many are members of parish altar guilds, teach in the Church School, and help in the devotional and study programs of the women of the parish. Many visit the sick and shut-ins in the parish, and in nursing homes and institutions for the aged. Junior members of the Order visit in hospitals.

From the voluntary Self-Denial Offering given by members throughout the Order, the salary of the missionary, Elizabeth Daniel, is paid. From the free will offering to the Master's Fund, given by members throughout the Order, scholarship aid is available for women for training for work in the Church in the three recognized training schools in this country, and for native workers in accredited schools in their own.

DIOCESAN REGISTER

Communicants last reported	6,089
Received by Transfer	650
	6,739
Transferred to Parishes	60
Five percent adjustment to cover deaths, etc.	334
Present Number	6,345*

Note: Canon XIV, Section III, Paragraph 2, requires that the Minister in charge of Parishes and Missions shall transfer to the Diocesan Register, at least once a year, and before the Annual meeting of the Diocesan Convention, the names of Communicants whose whereabouts or continued existence are unknown. And he shall note the fact on his Communicant List.

It is now twenty years since the Diocesan Register was set up in 1945, and some report of its operation may be in order. The number of Communicants, whose whereabouts are unknown, that have been transferred from parishes in these twenty years is 14,000. Some 700 Letters of Transfer have been issued from this list, which would leave over 13,000 on the Diocesan Register. It is unlikely that all these persons are still living after this length of time. Many others have no doubt made other Church affiliations. Therefore, for statistical purposes we have in the last few years made a five percent adjustment to cover deaths, etc. This reduces the present number reported to 6,345.

Custodian

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The Canonical duties of the Registrar have been duly performed throughout the year. Requests for certificates of Holy Baptism, Marriages and Burials from the Registers of closed parishes have been complied with, insofar as the records were available.

The attention of all officers of Diocesan Organizations and Institutions, and Vestries of Parishes is called to the importance of preserving official books of record and other documentary papers of said organizations. In case of dissolution, the said books and papers should be turned over to the Registrar as soon as possible thereafter, for permanent storage in the Church House Vault.

J. Wesley Twelves,

Registrar
